Vessels Return Agreed

Russia Purchase Bid Rejected

WASHINGTON, June 16 (AP) — Russia today agreed to return 186 vessels she got from the United States during the Second World War and made a bid to buy 167 others, but the purchase offer was rejected.

The offer was the only new proposal injected into talks, revived today after a 10-month lapse, toward settlement of the Soviet's lend-lease account.

The Russians got from this country some $11,000,000,000 worth of supplies during the war, including 670 ships. The U.S., in line with a policy of collecting only for the peacetime value of goods which were not destroyed, has offered to settle for $800,000,000.

When the talks resumed today after a break-off since last August, the Soviets renewed their best money offer so far—$300,000,000. The U.S. previously had rejected this figure, while promising to scale down its demand if the Russians would come up with what U.S. officials regard as a constructive offer.

INSISTED ON RETURN

As for the 670 ships, the Soviets said 146 had been scrapped or otherwise lost and 171 were unfit for navigation. They offered to return 186 and buy the remaining 167. The U.S. again insisted on return of all the ships.

Despite the failure to reach agreement today on the main issues, officials said there was some advance toward a settlement in the Moscow proposal to return 186 vessels. The proposal was that they be delivered to some foreign port near the Soviet Union. It was estimated they would be ready for delivery in four or five months.

The negotiators agreed to meet again Wednesday.

The lend-lease negotiations have dragged on for more than five years.

Russia took the initiative in asking for the new talks, without indicating what she might propose.

Malik To Air Charges

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., June 16 (AP) — Almost a year to the day after he touched off the Korean truce talks, Russia's Jakob Malik today called a Security Council meeting for Wednesday to air the Kremlin's charges that the United Nations are waging germ warfare in Korea and China.

Malik also put before the council members a proposal for the simultaneous admission of 14 applicants for U.N. membership—a project certain to be rejected by the west as a "horse trade."

Persons familiar with Russian manoeuvring thought Malik might be trying to get the Korean question back before the Security Council, where the Soviet Union has a veto, by the rear door.

Mine Workers Walk Off Job

Strikers Picket Lumber Firms

Reds Attack Swedish Plane

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, June 16 (AP)—Two Soviet jet fighters, one firing bursts from 20-mm. cannon, blasted an unarmed Swedish airforce flying boat from the skies today, plunging it into the Baltic. The crew of seven, including two wounded, was rescued by a small freighter.

Immediately, an aroused Swedish government, reflecting the anger of shouting, jeering crowds which surrounded the Soviet embassy here, protested this "act of violence," and demanded swift punishment of "those responsible for the outrage."

Tonight 5,000 enraged demonstrators yelling "We will see Stalin hanged," jammed the street outside the Soviet embassy and set bonfires.

At the time of the attack about 60 miles off the Soviet-held Estonian coast—in an area where the Russians are reported to be holding vast sea and air manoeuvres—the Swedish plane was searching for a Swedish air force transport plane missing since Friday with eight aboard. This plane, too, is believed to have been shot down by the Russians.

STRONG PROTEST

Soviet Ambassador Constantine Rodionov was called to the foreign office to receive the strong Swedish protest from Prime Minister Tage Erlander. At the same time Erlander demanded that Soviet embassy officials stop spying activities in this country where seven Swedes went on trial today for selling vital defense secrets to Russian agents.

At Hangoe, Finland, where the seven rescued Swedish airmen were taken after being fished from the cold Baltic seas by a German freighter, crew commander Capt. Sven Gosta Toerngren said "we were attacked by two Mig's but only one of them shot at us." The attack lasted nine minutes, he said.

Toerngren said the plane's pilot, Axel Arbin, and navigator, Bertil Engberg, were injured, "but I don't know if they were hit by bullets or if they were hurt at the crash against the water surface."

The captain was certain, he said, that his Catalina was "very far off foreign coastal waters."

Two years ago an unarmed United States navy Privateer aircraft was shot down in this same area with 10 men aboard. The Soviets then claimed that the craft was a B-29 bomber violating Russian territory over Latvia. Russia rejected U.S. protests.

"The Russians continued to fire at us while our plane was losing altitude," Toerngren said. "After nine minutes when we had only some 10 metres (32 feet) left to the water surface, we sighted a freight ship and flew toward it."

Jordan Case Gets Hearing

NANAIMO, June 16—Hearing of the case of the Corporation of Port Alberni against its Mayor, Loran K. Jordan, opened in Nanaimo Monday before Mr. Justice Wood.

The city claims a $2,500 penalty from the mayor pursuant to Section 25 of the Municipal Act and a further sum of $50 for each time the mayor acted, sat or voted while being disqualified pursuant to Section 26 of the Act.

A further claim of $42,000 for monies used or expended for purposes other than expressly provided in a sewer by-law was not pressed by counsel for the city, Victor B. Harrison — who is assisted by Douglas M. Greer—because of lack of evidence on that point.

Company Gets Nod For Export of Gas

EDMONTON, June 16 (CP)—The Alberta government today approved an order-in-council authorizing the Westcoast Transmission Company to export natural gas.

The export permit includes the restrictions recommended by the Provincial Conservation Board in its report to the government following a probe of reserves.

The Federal Transport Board announced Saturday in Ottawa its conditional approval of Westcoast's application to export Alberta natural gas from the Peace River area to the Pacific Coast. The condition was that the board must first find that reserves are sufficient.

Earlier, the Alberta government announced approval of Westcoast's application provided certain conditions were met. One was that the company receive the Federal Transport Board's approval.

The Alberta Petroleum and Natural Gas Conservation Board, after an investigation, recommended that the government approve export of natural gas from a section of the Peace River area.

Westcoast proposed building a $111,240,000 pipeline to the Pacific coast.

PUZZLE PRESENTED

Meanwhile in Washington, five pipeline companies which want to sell natural gas to Pacific Northwest customers put a puzzle before the Federal Power Commission today. Most of the natural gas would come from fields in Alberta.

On the basis of opening statements by rival lawyers, each company claimed to have an advantage on some phase of the supply and marketing problems involved. None had the full answer.

The situation, as they outlined it, is this:

Northwest Natural Gas Co., New York, claims to be the only applicant with contracts to buy the needed gas in Alberta.

Westcoast said it is the only company authorized by Canadian authorities to export gas.

Pacific Northwest Pipeline Corp., Houston, Tex., giving notice that it would amend its application to provide for tapping of natural gas fields in New Mexico, Colorado, Arizona and Utah—asserted its proposal was the only one not subject to the decisions of a foreign government.

Glacier Gas Co., Butte, Mont., said it has acquired 100,000 acres in Alberta and is carrying out its own explorations. If successful in finding its own fields, the company thinks it stands a better chance of getting Canadian permission to export gas into Montana, Idaho and Washington.

The fifth company, Trans-Northwest Gas Inc., Spokane, has a franchise from 15 Eastern Washington counties—a requirement for any concern hoping to operate in the area.

Investigation Ends

OTTAWA, June 16 (CP)—Parliament's foot-and-mouth investigation ended today.

Obtaining the support of Social Credit members, the Liberal majority in the commons agricultural committee voted 28 to 9 to halt the inquiry into the government's handling of the outbreak and present a report to the commons.

Liberal and Social Credit forces combined also to defeat by 23 to 9 a C.C.F. attempt to delve further into the outbreak by calling at least four more witnesses, including Dr. L. L. Hewitt, Regina veterinarian, who had been critical of the federal diagnosis of the disease.

The votes, reached amid heckling, charges and counter-charges, mean that a sub-committee now will draft a report to be considered by the main body before it is sent to the House.

Allied Lines Pounded By Big Guns of Reds

SEOUL, June 17 (Tuesday) (AP)—Big Chinese guns began pounding Allied lines again Monday night while a Communist battalion marked time in the battle during the last six days for a hill mass on Korea's western front.

The Chinese have counter-attacked each day since United States infantrymen won the top of the "T"-shaped hill west of Chorwon. The Americans drove back the Chinese battalion again Monday morning after seven hours of bloody fighting.

An Allied officer reporting from the front said he could not say immediately if the Chinese had started a new attack to drive United Nations troops off the three nobs they hold at the southern end of hill "T." The hill mass overlooks one invasion route to Seoul, 50 miles south.

Up to Sunday night, U.S. troops had killed and wounded more than 1,000 Chinese, U.S. officers said, making it the heaviest battle for a U.S. division since last november.

ALL ACROSS FRONT

(The Communist Pyongyang radio said U.S. casualties—killed, wounded or captured—totaled 1,100.)

The U.S. 45th division attacked the Chinese last week all across its division front.

Other clashes were reported around Kimhwa, Kumsong and the Pukhan River on the central front, and the Punchbowl in the east.

Meanwhile, Communist truce delegates repeated Monday a vague statement that "no truly neutral nation" would agree to participate in any re-screening of Allied-held prisoners.

The statement, by North Korean Gen. Nam Il, chief Red negotiator, contained no implication the Reds would budge on the prisoner-exchange issue—major roadblock to an armistice.

At Koje Island, the transfer of 17,500 Communist war prisoners from three large compounds was planned for Tuesday in a renewal of "operation break-up" after a three-day lapse.

Claxton's Son Dies in River

SEPT ILES, Que., June 16 (CP).—David Claxton, 22-year-old son of Defense Minister Brooke Claxton, was drowned Saturday in Guy's River near the Ungava iron ore shipping centre of Knob Lake.

The McGill University third-year science student was spending his second summer as a medical assistant with construction crews. He apparently slipped while fishing in the swift river and was carried into deep water by the current.

Red Cross Man Dies

Major Kenneth G. Mickleborough, chairman of the Victoria Red Cross blood transfusion service, died suddenly Sunday.

Funeral service will be held Wednesday at 1.30 from Sands Funeral Home.

Recount of First Choices To Be Held Only if Asked

There will be no recheck of Victoria riding first-choice ballots until July 3, and then only if candidates request it.

Alan Macfarlane, returning officer, said last night that before second, third and four-choice ballots are counted, candidates will be given a chance to ask a recheck of ballots on a single poll basis.

Mr. Macfarlane said he will produce statements of polls from deputy returning officers, and will ask candidates to accept them as accurate totals of first choices.

They will be rechecked if candidates wish, he said.

Mr. Macfarlane said about a dozen applications for vote-counting jobs have been filed with him, some of them from men and women who worked last week.

He said he will pick some "younger, more alert" applicants from former poll workers, but the majority of his staff will be new.

The crew for July 3 will be exhaustively briefed on the complex job, and a run-through of two "mock" counts will be on their training schedule, he said.

Strike Action Still Pending

Strike action is still pending by Victoria carpenters following a meeting last night of Local 1598, United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners (A.F.L.-T.L.C.).

The local left the matter with the negotiating committee.

Contractors said any lockout would be only for protection of new construction, such as to assure concrete pouring could be completed without stoppage.

Carpenters seek to back a conciliation board report for a wage of $2.10 an hour.

Grandfather Faces Charge of Murder In Slaying of Child

Police Hold Duncan Man

BY MAURY GWYNNE

A Duncan lawyer has been charged with murdering his two-year-old grandson with a straight razor while the child's parents were sleeping in an adjoining room early yesterday morning.

Victim of the slaying is two-year-old Robert John Horsfield, son of Rev. and Mrs. A. P. Horsfield, Mayne Island.

The boy's grandfather, Fredrick W. Galloway, 71, of Duncan, has been formally charged with murder and remanded until June 23.

After an inquest held on Mayne Island yesterday afternoon, Islands District Coroner E. C. Collins, Ganges, said Galloway was mentally unbalanced at the time of the slaying.

"The child died of a hemorrhage from severed arteries in the throat caused by a razor in the hands of Fredrick William Galloway," he said in a statement after the inquest.

An investigation by R.C.M.P. showed that the child was killed in his bed in a room adjoining that of his sleeping parents at about 8 a.m. yesterday.

CALLED POLICE

When the parents arose, the father went to the little boy's room and found him bleeding severely from the throat. He telephoned the R.C.M.P. detachment on Salt Spring Island, and the Victoria detachment was immediately notified.

Sgt. R. Whittaker from Victoria was sent by police launch to take charge of the investigation.

Mr. Galloway was a prominent member of the legal profession in Duncan from 1929 until quite recently, when he was forced to retire following a nervous collapse. After brief treatment he went to live with his son-in-law and family on Mayne Island to recuperate.

Mr. Horsfield and his wife moved to Mayne Island from Duncan about two years ago, when Mr. Horsfield took over the Church of Mary Magdalene. Robert was born in Duncan on June 2, 1950, and a second child, a girl, was born to the Horsfields about three weeks ago.

POPULAR BOY

The Horsfields lived at Miners Bay, in a community of about 300 people. The dead boy was well liked and known to all in the district.

"The whole island is stunned," a resident said last night. "He was such a lovely little fellow. It is a terrible thing. We all know the family so well," he added.

Commons Defeats Resources Criticism

OTTAWA, June 16 (CP).—The Commons tonight defeated Progressive Conservative and C.C.F. motions of non-confidence in the government. Both motions suggested greater use of Canadian raw materials in Canada.

Members voted 115 to 32 against the Progressive Conservative motion. It urged that a national policy be devised under a system of free enterprise to develop resources for the benefit of Canadians. It called for expanded use of raw materials as a means to provide greater employment opportunities for Canadians.

The Social Credit Party joined with the Progressive Conservatives in supporting the motion, moved as the Commons was about to go into Committee of Supply to consider estimates. The Liberals and C.C.F. opposed the motion.

MORE PROCESSING

In sponsoring his party's motion, George Drew, Progressive Conservative leader, said he favors co-operation with other countries in exchange of raw materials. But Canada could do 2½ more to process raw materials into finished products.

Production Minister C. D. Howe rejected any suggestion that Canada should limit exports of raw materials.

Fire Kills Father, Children

NORTH BAY, Ont., June 16 (CP).—Fred Thibeault, 40, died today with six of his nine children when fire swept his tarpaper-covered home in suburban Widdifield township.

His wife, Judy, 39, was severely injured when she fell or jumped from an upstairs window. Two children thrown to safety from the second-floor bedrooms, Lee, seven, and Lorna, nine, were admitted to hospital.

Dead besides the father are: Gerald Thibeault, 16; Rene, 10; Lynn, seven, a twin of Lee; John, five; Patrick, four, and Elizabeth, [illegible]

Postmasters Hope for Mail

On the other side of the counter for a change are these four B.C. postmasters attending conference of the Canadian Postmasters' Association, B.C. branch, here this week. Eager for mail from home they give Empress Hotel clerk William Sowler same treatment they get all year—"Any mail?" Is terse reminder at top of picture also tacked inside post office cages? wonders Mr. Sowler. Postmasters are, left to right, J. A. Allison of Quesnel, B.C., president of the B.C. branch; A. F. Brownsey of Sooke, secretary; Mrs. G. M. Cottle of Northfield, B.C., and Leslie Hammer of Port Alberni, executive officer.

Growth of Victoria Fourth Fastest, McGill Man's Canada Survey Shows

The population of greater Victoria since 1941 has shown the fourth largest increase out of 14 leading Canadian cities, from 75,560 to 104,303, or 38 per cent.

The information is contained in a special statistical report prepared by D. C. Corbett, M.A. of McGill University, for the coming conference of the Canadian Federation of Mayors and Municipalities.

[illegible] Cities," Victoria, however, ranks thirteenth, besting only St. John, N.B., in population size.

Showing greater increases are Edmonton, 76.9 per cent; Calgary, 49.5 per cent and Vancouver, 40.6 per cent.

In an extensive survey of Canadian growth, Mr. Corbett has shown that one of the chief causes of municipal financing difficulties has been the increasing urbanization of the population of Canada.

GROW FASTER

"Big cities have grown faster than small towns, and suburbs have grown faster than their parent cities. The rapid growth of big cities and of suburbs leads to certain difficulties in municipal finance," he states.

In 1871, the percentage of the population living in rural areas was 80.4 compared to 19.6 in the cities. This ratio has changed in 1951 to 42.7 rural and 57.3 urban.

The increase in population, the report points out, boosts the per capita cost of municipal services while the revenue from real property taxes have increased 83 per cent between 1939 and 1951 while "municipal costs went up much more." Prices for example, increased 109 per cent during the same period.

"It can be seen," Mr. Corbett writes, "that municipal revenues from real property have failed to keep pace with the cost of a constant amount of service, let alone a growing amount."

He warns, however, against the danger of turning over the responsibility for certain functions to provincial governments which "means increased centralization and all that it implies."

LESS VITAL

"The fewer important functions local governments have to perform, the less vital will local democracy be, and the more apathetic will be its electorate and respresentatives."

(The Hobbs Report, endorsed by the Union of B.C. Municipalities, recommends turning over a greater proportion of education and social welfare finance to the provincial government.)

Mr. Corbett suggests that more revenue could be obtained by levying taxes on Crown property (taxation of provincial property has been suggested by Victoria aldermen) and exemption of municipal governments from payment of provincial and federal sales tax. (A protest against payment of federal sales tax on municipally-manufactured goods by Victoria and neighboring municipalities was recently turned down by the government.)

"The greatest possibility, however, lies in some new approach to the assessment formula for real property tax," the report concludes (Victoria is at present undergoing a complete reassessment program of all property within its boundaries.)

It is expected that the federal and provincial sales tax question will be discussed at the Calgary conference this year.

RECEIVE ANALYSIS

Meanwhile, Victoria taxpayers have received from city manager Cecil Wyatt an analysis of the city's financial problems along with their 1952 tax notices.

Co-signed by Mr. Wyatt and Mayor Claude Harrison, the pamphlet gives a concise analysis of municipal revenue and expenditure of the record $6,790,255 budget.

Explaining the 56.5 mill rate, the pamphlet explains that "your city council would have liked very much to have been able to bring down a mill rate no greater than that of 1951 (55 mills) but was confronted with significant increased costs for education, salaries and wages."

A graphic "pie" gives a visual picture of how the money is raised and where it goes during the year.

Firm Plans Extra Days For Staff

A Victoria firm is offering a special bonus to its employees who agree to take their holidays outside of July and August.

T. G. Denny, president of Victoria Chamber of Commerce said that the plan was in operation by his own firm (Standard Furniture) and that it was working well.

Employees are given between two and four extra days holidays according to the popularity of the month they choose.

"For those wanting to visit California the extra days are extremely welcome," said Mr. Denny.

Careless Driver Pays $35 Fine

David S. Ackerman, logger of no fixed address, paid a $35 fine in Esquimalt police court yesterday after pleading guilty to a careless driving charge dated June 14. His driver's license will be suspended and a report will be sent to the superintendent of motor vehicles.

Pleading guilty to operating a car with no current year's driver's license, Mrs. Francis E. Ellis, 968 Wollaston, was fined $25. Mr. Ellis appeared on behalf of his wife, unable to attend due to illness.

Pleading guilty to possessing liquor in an Esquimalt restaurant, James Mills, Y.M.C.A., was fined $50, or in default, one month.

CLEVELAND, June 16 (AP)—The 300,000-member communications workers of America, fifth largest union in the C.I.O., opens a five-day convention here today. Creation of a multi-million-dollar strike fund is the major item of business.

$1,000 Costs Asked

Usherette Sues Fisherman

A case in which it is claimed that the plaintiff injured in an automobile mishap, and not covered by B.C.H.I.S.—is not entitled to recovery of expenses, will be heard in Supreme Court Thursday.

A 23-year-old theatre usherete, Alice Irene Still, 612 Constance Street, claims $1,000 and costs from James R. Georgeson, fisherman, as the result of injuries sustained while she was a passenger in Georgeson's car at 2.30 a.m. January 14, 1952.

Georgeson's automobile collided with a parked vehicle on Superior Street.

Mrs. Still, whose husband is a petty officer in the R.C.N., claims she lost $180 in wages and was billed $342 for medical and hospital expenses as the result of her injuries.

Georgeson's attorney, Roy Manzer, Q.C., claims that Mrs. Still's expenses are the exclusive liability of her husband, who was not in Victoria at the time of the accident, and that hospital expenses are not recoverable by her under the B.C. Hospital Insurance Act.

Mr. Manzer claims that Mrs. Still was "almost continuously in the company of the defendant, and had full knowledge of the conditions and risk involved in driving with him."

Mrs. Still is represented by J. McConnell.

Free Booklet Tells How Deaf Hear Again With Startling Clarity, Ease

CHICAGO (Special)—New hope for the 15 million persons in the United States who are hard of hearing was voiced by a noted Chicago acoustical scientist.

He reported that through the miracle of modern electronics it is now possible to overcome deafness even if the loss is severe.

He demonstrated how the deaf can hear again with a clarity and ease they never dreamed possible.

According to this electronic expert, the longer a hearing loss is neglected, the harder it is to recapture certain speech sounds and understand them."

To acquaint the hard of hearing readers of this paper with what may be done to help the deaf hear again with miraculous clarity, full authoritative details about deafness and how to overcome it are described in an informative, new, illustrated booklet, which will be sent in a plain wrapper without any cost or obligation.

To obtain your free copy, simply send your request to: Electronic Research Director, Dept. 615A, Beltone Hearing Aid Co., 1450 W. 19th St., Chicago 8, Ill. A postcard will do.

ARE YOU HARD OF HEARING?

J. A. MIDDLETON
Authority on Deafness

PROOF
THAT ACOUSTICON HAS FULFILLED THE U.S. GOVERNMENT ATTACK ON DEAFNESS

As a result of a nation-wide survey and the greatest clinical study of deafness ever made, conducted by the U.S. Government through the U.S. Public Health Service.

Basic facts about hearing loss were revealed and published by the government. The most important point the government found was that no single hearing aid performance could properly or efficiently work on the different types of hearing loss. That instead, each different loss required carefully selected hearing aid performance if it was to be scientifically corrected.

By following the recommendations of the U.S. Government Public Health Department, Acousticon, and only Acousticon, has developed hearing correction similar to the system used for eyesight correction. In other words, different hearing lenses for different hearing losses.

This is now available to the public through Acousticon—giving you corrections for your individual requirements.

IS YOUR PRESENT HEARING AID GIVING YOU THE CORRECTION YOU NEED?

The Most Powerful Gasoline Your Car Can Use!

TODAY'S more powerful engines require a highly complex gasoline to deliver their full power. There can be as many as 1500 different chemical compounds in a gallon of gasoline.

To select the best of these chemicals, and to arrange them properly to fulfill the needs of your car calls for the last word in refinery equipment and scientific skill.

It is Shell's manufacturing policy to make "The most powerful gasoline your car can use." Shell activates gasoline by splitting and rearranging petroleum molecules.

The result—Shell Premium—the most powerful gasoline your car can use. See the Shell Dealer in your neighborhood.

New Bill To Give Pensions to M.P.'s

OTTAWA, June 16 (CP)—Prime Minister St. Laurent, with the backing of all four political parties in parliament, this week will introduce a bill to establish the first pension scheme for members of the House of Commons.

The bill, emerging after months of study and preparation, is designed to bring economic stability into the careers of members and to help attract good men to parliament.

All parties have been encountering difficulties in obtaining candidates because parliament is demanding more and more of the members' time, the political future is inevitably uncertain and the pay isn't enough to exert a strong influence.

The $6,000 a year they draw—$4,000 indemnity and a tax-free $2,000 for expenses—may sound large to some Canadians. But members, who must maintain themselves here and their families elsewhere and are high-priority targets for every kind of contribution, say they can hardly make ends meet.

The feeling among members now is that with relatively minor cost to the taxpayer—a total of about $60,000 a year—the job as member of parliament can be made considerably more attractive. The taxpayers' contributions are to be matched by those of the members.

The scheme is roughly this:

SIX PER CENT

The member will contribute 6 per cent of his indemnity, or $240 a year into the fund. The government will match this. Once a member has been elected three times, he is eligible for pension when he leaves the House unless he goes to the senate or some other government appointment such as a judgeship.

A member who is defeated after being elected less than three times does not draw the pension but gets his own contributions back without interest. Members of the present House who have been elected several times in the past can gain credit for those years for pension purposes by paying in enough money.

If the pension scheme was in effect now, about 80 members of the present House would qualify out of 262.

The maximum pension will be $3,000 a year. A 10-year man would draw about $2,500 a year.

Fighter Pilot Back From War

WINNIPEG, June 18 (CP)—An R.C.A.F. jet pilot landed here Sunday after a three-month tour of operations in Korea where he took part in 82 combat missions.

Flying Officer Sanford Bruce Fleming arrived aboard an R.C.A.F. transport. He was met by his wife and two-year-old daughter.

F.O. Fleming is credited with damaging three enemy aircraft, one possibly destroyed, in his Korean tour as an exchange pilot with the U.S. Fifth Air Force.

A native of Hull, Que., he went on attached duty early this year.

Magazine Investigates French Communists

INTERPRETING THE NEWS

BY WILLIAM L. RYAN
Associated Press News Analyst

Why do 5,000,000 Frenchmen vote Communist?

This is a question which has baffled many Westerners, including many Frenchmen.

Realities, a French magazine with a rising United States readership, set about to find out the answers. With the aid of the French Institute of Public Opinion the magazine carried out an extensive sampling of French voters' views.

It came up with answers which can apply as well to Italy as to France. These are some of the findings:

The average Communist voter is younger than those who vote for the other parties. Almost one-half are under 35 and three-quarters are under 50. Like most youngsters in other lands, many consider themselves idealists.

The Communist voter, with rare exceptions, owns no property, has no automobile, hires no servants. But he does have a radio. His wife is likely to vote Communist along with him.

The slogan of the Communist party in France is "Bread, Peace and Liberty." The magazine holds that the Frenchman who votes Communist puts bread first, then peace, then liberty.

It holds, also, that many French voters have lost faith in the other parties, most of those who vote Communist are not themselves dedicated to the party. They have been won over by slogans and promises—promises on which the other parties have reneged.

The first concern of the man who votes Communist, the survey shows, is "improving the worker's conditions." Some 76 per cent of Communist voters polled said they were certain that living conditions influenced the voters most.

"It is obvious," concludes the survey, "that Communist doctrine as understood by French Communist voters is poles apart from Communist doctrine as it really is. But anyone who wants to convince the Communist voters of the fact has a hard task before him."

Italy Ratifies Schuman Plan

ROME, June 16 (Reuters).—Italy today ratified the Schuman Plan for a European coal and steel pool, completing parliamentary approval of the plan by all six member countries.

The plan involves France, Italy, Germany, Belgium, Holland and Luxembourg. Steel resources of each country will be lumped together for use of member countries.

Russia Not Helping East German Army

BONN, Germany, June 16 (AP).—East Germany's Communist rulers are running into trouble—including some with the Russians—in their plans to rush creation of a full-fledged army on the side of the Kremlin, Allied intelligence officers said today.

The Red's troubles are manifold. First, the East German people are balking at remilitarization. Second, where is the money to come from out of an economy already hard-pressed by Russian exploitation? Third, the ever-suspicious Russians don't trust the Germans and, even if they did, they would hardly be prepared to give them heavy armaments free of charge.

This is the picture drawn by western intelligence:

There are indications the Russians have no intention of supporting rearmament on the scale announced. The East German Communists are reported aiming at 12 divisions with 375,000 men.

Shortly after throwing off the wraps for their rearmament program, East German leaders, headed by Deputy Premier Walter Ulbricht, asked Soviet authorities for financial aid. The Germans specifically wanted investments in industry to launch an armaments production program and a reduction in the amount of goods shipped to Russia as reparations.

But Soviet authorities vetoed all the proposals. In addition, the Soviets have withheld any promises of military equipment to the East Germans.

Some officials believe economic exploitation of East Germany remains the main objective of the Soviets, the Germany now is delivering more and better goods to Russia than any other satellite. The total rearmament program charted by East German leaders would require large amounts of heavy equipment from the Russians and Soviet investments in East German industry.

Japan To Auction Sunken Battleship

HIROSHIMA, Japan, June 16 (Reuters).—The sunken 48,000-ton Japanese battleship Mutsu will be put up for auction this year. With it will be 10 other sunken vessels and former Japanese military installations in the Hiroshima area.

Famed Woman Spy Stabbed, Man Held

LONDON, June 16 (AP).—A lovely former Polish countess who survived a fantastic career as a British spy in the Second World War was knifed to death early today in a west end hotel.

Countess Skarbek, 37, one-time beauty contest queen in Warsaw, matched wits with the Gestapo in occupied Europe for five war years.

Twice captured by Nazi agents, she escaped to carry on as a sabateur and fighter in the French Maquis.

Recently she had been employed as a stewardess on the liner Winchester Castle.

Fellow guests at the Shelbourne Hotel heard her screaming "Get him off me!" shortly after midnight. They found her dead with a knife wound in her chest.

Police arrested Dennis G. Muldowney, 41, porter at the Reform Club, a Liberal political organization. Muldowney was arraigned on a murder charge and jailed pending a hearing July 1.

Chief Inspector George Jennings said Muldowney told the officers when arrested:

"I killed her. Let's get away from here and get it over quickly."

Countess Sharbek volunteered for the British secret service soon after the fall of her native Poland. Sent to Hungary to make contact with underground groups in the occupied areas, she was credited with establishing an escape route for hundreds of Allied soldiers trapped by the sudden fall of France.

After her second escape from the Gestapo she fled to Turkey. She trained as a parachutist and was dropped into France to work with the Maquis.

In 1947 she became a British citizen and adopted the name Christine Granville, one of the aliases she had used as a spy.

Oddities

HAMILTON, June 16 (CP).—A $10 bill bearing the Queen's picture turned up here Saturday. It was counterfeit.

Mrs. Minnie Miller, clerk in a hardware store, said she was offered the bogus note by two men who bought a paintbrush and a broom handle.

"This isn't real," she protested. "Why, it's got the picture of Queen Elizabeth on it and she hasn't been crowned yet."

"They have just been issued," said the man.

When Mrs. Miller hesitated, the man handed her a genuine $10 bill, took change and left hurriedly.

when did you buy your DAKS
Yesterday, perhaps. But such is the quality of Daks cloths that you can find men who are still wearing the Daks they bought in 1939. The worsteds, for instance, are woven with a two-fold warp and weft, which gives exceptionally fine texture and extra long wear. When you remember the superb hang of Daks, the self-supporting waistband, can you wonder that Daks are the most popular trousers in the world? Sold by many men's shops and department stores, or for your nearest dealer write Daks Canada Ltd., 344 Water Street, W., Vancouver, B.C.

A Sensible Step

ANNOUNCEMENT that the British Columbia Department of Lands would acquire from Mr. Joseph Davenport, a pioneer cartographer in Victoria, some of the foundation maps covering Vancouver Island areas, together with copyright, is welcome news. This step should have been taken long ago and is very much to the benefit of the province. The data thus secured will be held in trust for the public, and should prove of continuing benefit not only to the department concerned but also to all those whose business is concerned with the measurement of property on Vancouver Island. A good deal of this material is of original source value and has never been duplicated.

For nearly four decades, Mr. Davenport has placed his unique collection of first-hand maps generously at the disposal of provincial, municipal, legal and other agencies which in one fashion or another had need of it. He probably has been called in evidence on his specialty in British Columbia courts more often than any other witness, where titles and boundaries are concerned. His willingness to respond with information which quite often he alone had has been traditional and of genuine service to this province. The present move by the department of lands means that much of this very valuable material will become part of the official record.

For another reason also the move is a sound one. Mr. Davenport's work, while specialized, fits in well with the department's own records. In some places it will fill blanks, in others provide original source data, and everywhere provide a rounding out of the record. Some time ago this paper suggested that the province take this step to preserve the record and to improve its own map files, and we are glad that this is now being done.

Lord Alexander Doubly Welcome

WHEN Lord Alexander relinquished the governor-generalship of Canada to become minister of defense in Mr. Churchill's government it is unlikely that he expected to return to the Dominion in an official capacity so soon. His brief visit to Canada this week undoubtedly will be a happy occasion for him, just as it will be for the Canadian people, among whom Lord Alexander aroused feelings of admiration and affection far beyond the respect accorded to his office. No predecessor of his ever adapted himself more readily to the way of life in this country, and none was more wholeheartedly adopted by the Canadian people as one of themselves.

Accompanied by Rt. Hon. Selwyn Lloyd, United Kingdom minister of state, and other British officials, Lord Alexander will fly from Tokyo to Edmonton tomorrow on his way back to London from a tour of Korea and Japan. The following day the party will continue to Ottawa, and on Friday Lord Alexander and Mr. Lloyd will confer with Prime Minister St. Laurent, Secretary of State Pearson and Defense Minister Claxton on matters affecting British Commonwealth participation in United Nations activities in Korea. On Sunday the British party will go on to Washington for further discussions of a similar nature.

In view of the confused state of affairs in Korea at present, it is fortunate for Canada that the delegation sent by Mr. Churchill to study the situation on the spot chose to return by way of Canada. Lord Alexander will be able to interpret the military and diplomatic situation for the Dominion government in the unemotional, objective and clear-sighted way for which he is noted and which is very much needed just now. At the same time his intimate knowledge of Canadian affairs will enable him to appraise United Nations activities in Korea as clearly from Canada's viewpoint as from that of the United Kingdom. To have Lord Alexander visit the Far East war zone is equivalent to Canada having an observer of its own there.

Canada will welcome Lord Alexander with all the enthusiasm reserved for reunions of firm friends.

Why All the Delay?

IT is two years ago since a Victoria officer on a visit to European cemeteries wherein Canadian war dead are buried discovered that the headstones ignored the regimental identity of soldiers and condemned them to near-anonymity. The result was an emphatic protest all across the country and the promise of the minister of national defense to look into the matter. He did so, and authorized the substitution of headstones that would reflect the pride felt by regimental soldiers in the units in which they served.

On a second visit this spring to Canadian war graves in Europe the same officer reported that at the Ravenna cemetery in Italy the new headstones had arrived, bearing proper details of rank, name and regiment, with new nominal rolls prepared so that identification and location of each grave would hereafter be an easy matter. In France, however, the same happy situation does not prevail.

Writing home last week the Victoria officer tells of visiting Canadian war graves in a cemetery near Caen, in which are buried some members of The Canadian Scottish Regiment. No attempt has yet been made to change the headstones and, what is even more disquieting, the chief caretaker is unaware that orders have been given for any such change. The nominal roll is in poor shape, and the cemetery itself is hard to find.

It is not to be expected that this grievous error, a slight to Canadian war dead, could have been corrected overnight. More than 18 months have passed, however, since the defense minister admitted what he called a "curious misunderstanding" and pledged that the proper amend would be made. It seems apparent his department is none too swift, perhaps even none too keen, on reversing itself, and that someone in charge of this matter should be told to get a move on.

LIEUT.-COL. JOCK MacGREGOR, V.C.

Sir,—The death of Lieutenant-Colonel "Jock" MacGregor has robbed many veterans of the two world wars of a valued friend.

I knew Colonel MacGregor in the 2nd Canadian Scottish from June, 1940, until May, 1942, when I left for overseas. Colonel MacGregor shook hands with me and wished me luck on my departure and four years later gave me a welcome home greeting on Government Street. I shall always think of him in the words of an old army poem written after the Crimean War:

"While a soldier's name is honored
And a soldier's fame is dear
Nowhere shall he be forgotten
Least of all forgotten here."

I am grateful to him for many things, including an act of kindness to my father.

HUGH MAURICE.
1526 Pandora Avenue, Victoria, B.C.

KINDNESS SHOWN

Sir,—We would like very much to express our thanks and appreciation for the many kindnesses and help shown to us since our home was destroyed by fire.

We were unable to save anything and would have found it very hard to re-establish ourselves had it not been for the generosity of the people of Sooke District and especially the P.T.A.

Everyone has been so kind that it would seem unfair to mention any individual, but we cannot but help to thank Mr. J. Houff for taking us in and giving us shelter since the time of the fire.

MR. AND MRS. A. C. MEDWEDRICH
AND FAMILY.
Beecher Bay Road, R.R. 1, Victoria, B.C.

AFTERTHOUGHTS

Sir,—Those of us who supported the Old Line parties in this election can now hear rumblings of discontent at the result and dissatisfaction with the organisation, and some we hear, have gone even further to hastily blame the leaders. In other words, now that the box-office looks bad and the chorus is out of tune, they want to shoot the pianist. People of political experience see nothing unusual in this revolt of the electorate. It happened in Britain and elsewhere, only to revert in short order to the brains and experience of those who had learned the hard way through years in the House. Those of us who have been Conservatives all our lives and who have been actively engaged with the Conservative Party for more than 30 years, were proud to serve in this fight in B.C. under leadership of an unparalleled high order. If anyone wishes now, in the gloomy air of post-election blues, to criticize on the plea that silk gloves were not worn nor handed out by our leader, they should remember that 100 per cent bulldog honesty so patently part of him, is what the legislature needs. The electorate will most likely swing back to the knowledge and stability exemplified in our leader before many more sittings of the legislature.

SQDN. LDR. C. S. GOODE,
R.A.F. (Retired).
Sidney, B.C.

BUTTLE LAKE

Sir,—The defenders of our provincial parks look with renewed hope to the formation of a government which will give fair and unbiased consideration to their appeal against the application granted to the B.C. Power Commission to dam Buttle Lake, Strathcona Park.

Conservationists throughout B.C. were deeply embittered by the cynical treatment accorded to their cause during the dying hours of the last legislature.

DENIS H. BESLEY.

DANGEROUS ROAD

Sir,—Took my first push-bike ride of the season on Friday the 13th to beautiful Elk Lake, and felt very thankful to get home alive. This is my first time over the road since it has been turned into a "race track", with a 50 mile per hour limit. As a man with 60 years' experience on a push bike, would advise a cinder path, or better, a few yards from the speed demons.

Thousands of young folk will be visiting Elk and Beaver lakes this summer, and it is quite unfair to both cyclists and buses, etc., to ask both to share that narrow strip of road. A word to the wise is sufficient.

"Who's using a steamroller?"

Thinking Aloud

". . . of shoes—and ships—and sealing wax—of cabbages and kings."

By TOM TAYLOR

I COULDN'T read some notes I had made a week before, and so once more I reflected what a queer thing is this business of handwriting.

One spends youthful years perfecting the art of putting pencil or pen to paper, and then in maturity, with no domipie looking on . . . .

It could have been a bird that dipped its feet in ink and tip-tipped across the letter sheet.

Some individuals think that a slap-dash signature is a mark of distinction, the kind that comes from disdain of the commonplace. As if to say: "I could do better than this, of course, but a good penman can always take liberties when he is master of his craft."

Business tycoons, I fear, are prone to this affectation.

* * *

It is not so bad when a letter is typewritten and only the signature is at the mercy of the sender. You would be surprised at the number of missives reaching a newspaper office that simply prostrate the recipient. Some of them take an hour to decipher, and then only with the aid of a magnifying glass.

Yet presumably they were sent in order that they might be read.

It must have been a frightful job being a printer in the old days, when everything was written by hand. Some linotype veterans of those diabolical times still shudder when they recall some of the scripts they had to handle. Even today the odd bit of copy is handwritten—an item from outside, perhaps, if passably legible—but penmanship finds little favor against the typewriter.

Typewriters are not so common as to be in every household, naturally, and anyway most people prefer that personal correspondence be handwritten. It seems much more intimate then.

When dealing with one's own family this is fine. Every twirl in Aunt Jemima's calligraphy is known, her funny little habit of looping an e round the neck of a t, or her insistence that no i ever needs a dot. Experience teaches how to cope with her contempt for the rules.

* * *

But it is quite different trying to read letters from strangers or people whose handwriting is unfamiliar.

Careless penmanship is all the more strange in view of the care some people take with the composition of their letters. Some mail reaching my desk is apparently full of interesting observation and comment, and yet a portion of it is wasted because it is unreadable. Which is a pity.

Not that this column has overmuch room to complain, as I indicated at the outset. I feel sorry for anyone who receives a pen letter from me.

I read once that General Eisenhower's handwriting was abominable. So bad, indeed, that when he had occasion to write to the King and was told he would have to do it by hand, he was dismayed. "What's the use?" he asked despairingly. "He won't be able to read it anyway."

But then Eisenhower can afford to write a poor hand; in his case it will be excused as a peculiarity of the great. Not so with the rest of us. So perhaps we should do something about it.

Gerald Waring

Reports From Ottawa

A LIBERAL member of Parliament told me the other day that it isn't criticism of the government's tax and foreign policies or trade and development programs, that the Grits fear.

"If anything's going to beat us next time," he said, referring to the forthcoming general election, "it's not going to be the billions we raise and the billions we spend. It'll be things the Tories can reduce to simple terms—things like those blank blank teapots."

There was no need to ask what teapots. Ever since the defense department revealed it had ordered 29,630 one-and-a-half-quart aluminum teapots—enough to meet the forces' needs several times over—the Progressive Conservative opposition has flaunted the fact as proof of the government's dotage.

Similarly with serving forks. Why the army thought it needed 62,000 serving forks—an order which later was reduced to 14,500—has been explained reasonably well. But the Liberals realize that more people will hear opposition charges of the government's asininity in this matter than will ever hear the Liberals' explanation.

* * *

The explanation is that two years ago the government feared the Korean War might erupt into a third world war. Therefore it began stockpiling things it would need through a period of general mobilization to the end of the first year of war.

General mobilization would overtax the army's cafeteria facilities, forcing the army to fall back on "family style" messing—that is, six men to a table. Ergo, a teapot and a serving fork to each table. But mobilization didn't come, and in the meantime the army increased its cafeteria facilities. So it didn't need as many teapots and serving forks as originally ordered.

The case of the boudoir lamps and other articles of home furnishing is somewhat different:

(1) The army has to provide certain amenities and creature comforts to make army life sufficiently appealing to attract volunteers, and

(2) It's cheaper for the army to furnish married quarters at remote outposts than to pay the costs of moving the furniture of its officers and men to and from those posts.

One Liberal M.P. on the Commons defense expenditures committee chuckled as he listened to a witness, Deputy Defense Minister C. M. Drury, explain away the anomalies and mistakes in defense purchasing.

"Those dumb Tories," he whispered to another Grit. "They're letting Drury mop it up in front of their eyes. All they have to do is ask one question: 'Who signed the order for those teapots?'"

* * *

But his amusement may be premature. Thirty years ago there was a perfectly good explanation as to why another Drury, Premier E. C. Drury, of Ontario, paid $129 for a coal scuttle. It was of hammered brass, part of a set specially made to adorn the new fireplace in the office of the King's first minister. But in the 1923 election Tory leader G. H. Ferguson ignored the explanation. In his speeches he asked one telling question:

"Why did the premier spend 129 of your tax dollars on a coal scuttle? When you get home, look up the price of coal scuttles in your Eaton's and Simpson's catalogues."

Enough of the voters looked up the $1.79 prices of Eaton's and Simpson's coal scuttles to scuttle the Drury government.

Useless Lamps

(From The Windsor Star)

THERE is a modern tendency to think lights hanging from the ceiling are antiquated and unnecessary. The trend is toward floor lamps, lamps placed on end tables and otherwise scattered about a room. Yet lighting experts tell us lights affixed to the ceiling still are important.

Many laymen will agree heartily. Floor lamps, in high stands, are excellent. If there is a chair in proper position under one, it is fine for reading. The difficulty is, there is only room for one comfortable chair in a good position under one lamp. In a family room, unless there is more than one such light, some members of the family aren't well served.

It seems to us the manufacturers of lighting fixtures and household furniture should go into a huddle. The furniture designers and manufacturers make neat little end tables, satisfactory for cigarette trays, books and magazines. The designers and manufacturers of lighting equipment produce lovely lamps to stand on such tables.

But when the two are put together, they just don't work. The lights are too low for reading purposes, and aren't much good for anything else, either. Either the tables should be higher, or the lamps higher, so one could read easily by the light afforded.

A lot of the things we buy to provide light just don't do the job well. They may look nice, but they're no good to one who wants to see. Lighting properly affixed to or in ceilings at least show light.

Fun, Fact and Fiction

It was towards the end of term that a teacher of our acquaintance said, "If I live through this one I'll live for ever."

* * *

"Alice in Wonderland" turned out to be a dream. On the other hand a government policy that makes us pay taxes to keep meat off our own tables turns out to be real.

The June bride must expect to make some laughable mistakes, most of which, however, can be covered with mayonnaise.

* * *

A man had been trying to write a telegram with a pen provided by the post office. After two or three ineffectual starts he turned to the girl behind the counter and said, "Is this by any chance the pen used by King John at the signing of the Magna Carta?"

The girl replied, "Inquiries on the right, please."

The husband arrived home one evening and gave his wife an insurance policy. "I've insured my life for $10,000," he said, "so that if anything happens to me, you will be provided for."

"How thoughtful of you!" beamed his wife. "Now you won't have to see a doctor every time you feel ill, will you?"

The Packsack

Of GREGORY CLARK

THE air force has been advertising liberally for young chaps to come in and train as pilots. One of the recent ads featured the fact that the boys could fly at 600 miles an hour.

Which sounds fastest to your mind: 600 miles an hour or ten miles a minute?

It is the same speed. But it is interesting to reflect on the advertising pull of the two ways of stating it. Being long past the age of enlisting as a jet pilot, my own impression may be faulty. But it seems to me that 10 miles a minute is far faster than 600 miles an hour. I don't know any place 600 miles away that I would be interested in going to in one hour. But there are scores of places 30 miles away that I would be staggered stiff to reach in three minutes. Most potential recruits to the air force are boys who are entirely familiar with places 80 miles away—such as their favorite summer resorts—and it would give them a real idea of speed if it were stated that they could reach it in 8 minutes, instead of the two and a half hours it takes in Dad's car to get there normally in weekend traffic.

* * *

The 600-mile-an-hour figure is the familiar phraseology of the engineers and aeronautical experts. Speeds are commonly stated in m.p.h. But it might be worth reflecting if our advertising for the armed services is not a little too restrained by reason of too much consideration for the expert and the authority. Several times, both during and since the war, on studying posters and newspaper ads for the armed services I have had the impression that a soldier had either written the ads or had vetted them. In advertising agencies, it stands to reason there are bound to be some ex-service men; and what more natural than to hand the work over to them when it comes to a recruiting campaign? But since the armed services appeals are addressed to civilians, the most civilian employee in the business should have responsibility for these particular appeals, and the minute any ex-major or former group-captain starts twirling his mustache over the copy, it should be snatched from him and hidden. To a civilian, 10 miles a minute is really rocketting.

Transatlantic Pioneers

AVIATION history was made 33 years last Saturday when a twin-engined biplane climbed unsteadily into a 40-m.p.h. headwind above St. John's, Newfoundland, headed east and vanished over the fog-shrouded Atlantic. Sixteen hours and 12 minutes later, at 8.24 on the morning of Sunday, June 15, 1919, the frail, box-like machine touched down awkwardly in a bog at Clifden, County Galway, Ireland. It had flown 1,890 miles and made the first non-stop crossing of the Atlantic.

* * *

At the controls in the open cockpit of the British-built Vickers-Vimy bomber were two men, 33-year-old Captain John Alcock, an Englishman, and 27-year-old Lieut. Arthur Whitten-Brown, born in Scotland. Flying most of the time in thick fog, they lumbered slowly across the ocean at an average speed of about 120 m.p.h. But they pioneered the way for trans-Atlantic air travel eight years in advance of Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh's heroic solo crossing from Mineola, Long Island to Paris in May, 1927.

It was not an easy trip. Owing to fog, navigator Whitten-Brown could only obtain four fixes of his position—one on the sun, one on the moon, one on the Pole Star and one on Vega. After landing Captain Alcock, the pilot, described their experience:

* * *

"The bank of fog was extremely thick and we began to have a very rough time. The airspeed indicator jammed. It stood at 90 and I didn't know exactly what I was doing. It jammed through sleet freezing on it and it smelt smoky. We did some comic stunts then. I believe we looped the loop and by accident we did a steep spiral. It was very alarming; we had no sense of horizon. We came down from 4,000 feet until we saw the water was very near.

"That gave me my horizon again . . . we were within 50 feet of the water with the machine practically on its back. The airspeed indicator began to work as a result of the swift dive. We climbed to 11,000 feet. At 6 a.m. the machine was covered with ice. Brown had continually to climb to chip off the ice from the radiator shutter and airspeed indicator with a knife. We came down and flew over the sea at 300 feet. It was still cloudy but we could see the sun. It was terrible . . . we never saw a boat and got no radio messages at all."

* * *

Alcock was killed in an airplane crash in France later the same year. Whitten-Brown survived until 1948. As a memorial to the two pioneers, a statue is to be erected at London airport. A public fund will be launched by Britain's Royal Aero Club, jointly with the Air League of the British Empire and the Society of British Aircraft Constructors.

Elementary Status Set For Oak Bay School

The new Oak Bay Junior High School will operate on an elementary school basis for four months before it officially becomes a junior high school.

At least 250 Grade VII and VIII pupils from three city schools will register in September.

Greater Victoria School Board last night approved the move, after municipal inspector J. F. K. English pointed out that higher-than-normal registrations of new pupils will have to be coped with in Willows, Monterey Avenue and Margaret Jenkins Schools when the new term begins.

Although the Oak Bay school is almost completed, and more than three months ahead of schedule, Mr. English said it would be impossible to open as a junior high school before the new year, because equipment and staff have not been provided for.

Parents of children in the three schools affected will be notified before the end of this month.

Mr. English pointed out that there would be no difficulty in re-organizing the Oak Bay Junior High School after the Christmas vacation, and that the principal-designate, R. T. Kipling, and his vice-principal, Donald A. Smith, will have an opportunity to organize the school, with both staff and pupils present.

Certain portions of the building, such as the home economics, industrial arts, gymnasium and auditorium would not be needed before the new year, and only eight classrooms would be used, he said.

Board members hoped that unsettled labor conditions during the summer months will not affect the finishing of plumbing in the new building.

Board Appointment Demanded by Trustee

Greater Victoria School Board trustee E. H. Carey last night demanded that his position on the board, from which he resigned two months ago, be filled by Mrs. Elizabeth M. Maunsell, 138 Eberts, for the balance of the year.

Mr. Carey's resolution was endorsed by the board, and will be sent to the province's Council of Public Instruction.

The trustee pointed out that city council had been notified of his resignation April 24, but has taken no action.

Mrs. Maunsell, who was runner-up in December, 1949, civic elections for a school board seat, has consented to serve on the board for the rest of the year, Mr. Carey said.

The board last night also:

Laid on the table a request to cancel the $40 charge for a Greater Victoria civil defense control board instruction session at the Gordon Head School, and tabled another request from the Monterey Parent-Teacher Association for reduced charge for the use of the Monterey School.

Deferred appointment of a vice-principal for Victoria College.

Approved appointment of Charles Palmer, 534 Broughton Street, as college glee club conductor, at a salary of $150. Mr. Palmer will work during lunch-hours, and students are "very keen," the board heard.

Adopted education committee's recommendation that John R. L. Hayes be appointed to an elementary school principalship September 1, and approved the same position for R. H. Jones, salary and assignment pending.

Mothers, Dads, Uncles, Aunts Flock To See Children Dance

BY RAY BAINES

Approximately 1,200 mothers and fathers, uncles and aunts and friends packed the Royal Theatre last night to see about 150 sons and daughters, nieces and nephews and friends in the Wynne Shaw dance revue.

Featuring 23 separate numbers, hundreds of gay and colorful costumes, the show, entitled "Step by Step to Stardom," also displayed a good deal of youthful talent.

Every type of dance from classical ballet to the gay 90's can-can was featured in a pageant of toe-and-heel talent which brought spontaneous bursts of applause from the happy relatives.

Featured stars in solo and group ballet numbers were lovely Jacqueline Ivings, Vera Wakelyn, Brenda Lister (whose work in the court number was very pretty to watch), and Winnipeg Ballet member Victor Duret, a Victoria boy who was trained by the Wynne Shaw school.

JUNIOR STYLE

Other soloists were little Jeanie Burns, Linda Graves and David Eves (who did a junior-style "pas de deux"), Rae Evenden, Arlene Atkinson, Diane Limon and a flexible little lady named Mary Spilsbury, whose clever acrobatic dancing made most adults ache in every joint.

An interesting lesson in how ballet is taught was featured in the "Let's Watch Class" number with Ida Bianco Clarkson describing the various dances and exercises.

Everyone paid just tribute to the talented stars who danced the solo parts.

But almost everyone in the audience was watching at least one little star who had his or her name in small print and didn't really have a very important part in the show.

Courtenay Miner Granted New Trial

VANCOUVER, June 16 (CP). — William Leon Hunchuk, 32, Courtenay miner, was granted a new trial by the Court of Appeal to day on an attempted burglary charge.

John Stanton presented Hunchuk's appeal from his conviction at the recent Nanaimo assizes on a charge of attempting to break into a Kelly Douglas warehouse November 14.

Mr. Justice J. V. Clyne sentenced him to two years.

Mr. Justice H. I. Bird dissented from the majority decision of the Appellate Court ordering a new trial.

In order to maintain foot health and promote good posture, girls in the 12 to 14-year age group should wear heels not over one and one-half inches high.

Try this delightful family breakfast treat! Eat a generous bowlful (about ½ cup) of crisp toasty Kellogg's ALL-BRAN with sugar and cream. Drink plenty of liquids. ALL-BRAN is the natural laxative cereal that may help you back to youthful regularity, lost because of lack of bulk in your diet. It's the only type ready-to-eat cereal that supplies all the bulk you may need. High in protein and iron . . . not habit-forming. Why don't you try it? Kellogg's is so sure you'll like ALL-BRAN that if you're not completely satisfied after 10 days, send empty carton to Kellogg's, London, Ont., and get DOUBLE YOUR MONEY BACK!

Hard-of-Hearing Teacher

Appointment Approved

Appointment of a special teacher to deal with hard-of-hearing pupils was confirmed last night by the Greater Victoria School Board.

She will be Marjorie M. Casey of Vancouver, the only applicant to respond to the board's appeal.

At a January meeting the sum of $2,500 was approved to establish a special hard-of-hearing department in the school system.

[illegible] the board that Miss Casey has had about 20 years' experience, mostly in Vancouver, and got approval for a salary of $4,030 yearly, plus a $25 monthly car allowance.

The appointment will be on a year's probationary basis.

Mr. English said that Miss Casey's duties would be to look after the school welfare of 20 serious cases known to be attending Greater Victoria schools now.

He said that these were the worst of 65 children with varying degrees of deafness, but that Miss Casey would probably find many more among the 11,000 pupils in the system.

Mr. English said he thought Miss Casey would be almost constantly visiting Greater Victoria schools, but would need some kind of office accommodation.

Her duties would be to make sure each handicapped child had proper hearing aids, and given special attention so that the pupil would not be held back in any way during the school year.

EDINBURGH, June 15 (Reuters).—Clive Vale, 17, has received a letter from the Royal household refusing his offer to become court jester to the Queen.

"Unsophisticated days of court jesters are incapable of revival," wrote a high official.

Shortage of Potatoes Ends As New Supplies Arrive

The potato shortage on Vancouver Island is over.

Wholesalers report that the first Island-grown potatoes are reaching markets—although in small quantities. California potatoes are in sufficient supply to meet public demands.

A wholesale price drop of $2 a sack also will be reflected in retail prices immediately.

Saanich Peninsula strawberries are expected to be in top supply by this week end, with prices expected to be below the present price of approximately 30 cents a basket.

Prices at the height of the season are expected to be 25 cents a basket.

SHORT SUPPLY

Bananas, meanwhile, are expected to be in short supply because freighters are not sailing the West Coast because of possible labor troubles. Shipments now will be made via rail from New Orleans, reports said.

Arriving daily are Washington cherries, Santa Rosa red plums and apricots. Cantaloupes are available, retailing at about 19 cents a pound. Watermelon retail price is approximately 10 cents a pound.

Onion prices dropped on an average of 50 cents a sack wholesale, reports said. Island-grown garden peas are maturing slowly.

Cloudy weather has slowed growth of hothouse tomatoes which are becoming scarce. Prices are about 37 cents a pound retail.

Thieves Raid Home Under Construction

Theft of an electric drill valued at $63 from a house under construction at 1911 Shotbolt Street was reported to city police yesterday by R. F. Tull. He also told police that a new paint brush had been dipped in a tin of tar.

Skipper Bags Trophy; Ends Tradition

Max Young ended a Royal Victoria Yacht Club tradition yesterday when he successfully defended the Ben Temple Memorial Trophy in the annual race to William Head and return. No other skipper has ever won the trophy two years in a row.

Young's trim A class sloop Alcion was the first boat home in the race as well as the winner on corrected time. H. A. Wallace's Buccaneer III was second. Ned Ashe, in May D, was third in the over-all competition, and first in C class.

Peter Townshend, in Aquila, scored a double win in Star class races within the bay, while Eric Dowell won the Lightning event.

X class and Snipe races around Discovery Island were canceled because of predicted strong winds which did not materialize.

HILUNGA WINS

Substitute races in the bay were won by Betty Browne in Wee Joe in the Snipe class, and Frank Porter in Hilunga, in X class.

Complete results were:

Auxiliary cruisers: Alcion, Max Young; Buccaneer, H. A. Wallace; May D, Ned Ashe; Lalonga, Dick James; Red Start, J. Marshall; Blue Goose, G. L. Davis; Galatea, J. A. Stewart; Bendora, B. E. Nichols; Halcion II, J. M. Green; Dragoon, W. B. Holms.

Stars: First race—Aquila, Peter Townshend; Tatos, Logan May-hew; Mintaka, Gordon Inglis. Second race—Aquila, Mintaka, Tatos.

Lightnings: Ariel, Eric Dowell; Rania, Spencer Davies.

Snipes: Wee Joe, Betty Browne; PDQ, C. Wood; Cee Bee, Betty Dawson; Velaro, Richardson; Redskin, Nigel Scott-Moncrieff; Stormy Petrel, Robert Leckie; Iskoodah, Lyle Russel.

X class: Hilunga, Frank Porter; Warrior, John Green; Tattu, Nick Blandy.

Appendix No Barrier To Jet Ocean Flight

NORTH LUFFENHAM, Eng., June 16 (CP) — Sqdn. Ldr. Cal Bricker, a tough cookie from Grenfell, Sask., wasn't going to let a little thing like a rambunctious appendix get him down.

So when the pains came, Bricker carried on, directing his Jet fighter pilots from a hospital bed.

Bricker was leading the 21 Sabre Jets of the R.C.A.F.'s No. 439 Squadron on an unprecedented transfer operation from Ottawa to Canada's overseas air base at North Luffenham. The planes left the Canadian capital May 30 and finally reached here Sunday night after frequent weather delays.

"Didn't want to waste the five hard months we spent planning this flight," said Bricker. As the Jets landed at each successive base on their leap-frog route across the Atlantic, an ambulance rolled up and took Bricker to the nearest doctor. He then proceeded to brief his pilots from a hospital bed.

"The flight went according to plan," said Bricker. "The only thing we couldn't plan was the weather — and that was pretty rough."

The longest wait was at Goose Bay, where the squadron was held up eight days.

The pilots now have three days' leave. Most of them, accompanied by their wives and children, piled in to waiting aircraft today and flew to London to "do the town."

Post Official Due in City

Montreal Bonds

MONTREAL, June 16 (CP)—Prices were unchanged today in the usual slow Monday trading on the Montreal bond market. The corporate market was highlighted by the fractional climb of B.A. Oil convertibles.

LONDON, June 16 (Reuters)—The agriculture ministry Saturday reported two new outbreaks of foot-and-mouth disease, both in Sussex. The total cases reported since November now stand at 441.

Profits Taken After Bright Market Start

MONTREAL, June 16 (CP)—Sporadic profit-taking in late dealings pulled prices back from their highs.

Senior oils held early firmness as did beverages and carriers.

Papers and utilities were down a trifle and the remainder of the sections showed a trendless course.

Ogilvie, Bathurst "A" International Power, Hudson Bay Mining and Canada Steamship climbed a point each.

Noranda dropped a point at 77½ and Canada Cement was off one at 66.

Mines were narrow and irregular in moderate trading. Dominion Asbestos climbed 10 cents at $4.50. New Pacific Coal and Carnegie gained pennies. Frobisher slipped to $6.60, a loss of 30 cents. Jacuiyet and United Asbestos were also off. Western oils turned slightly lower with New British Dominion losing 13 cents at $2.85. Del Rio was off 10 cents at $3.85. Calvan dipped a dime at $7.75.

Banks Turn Lower

TORONTO, June 16 (CP)—Prices declined slightly in most sections.

Golds, base metals and western oils made no headway in opening trading but leading issues edged upward during the first hour. By noon, however, profit-taking skimmed most gains and prices turned downward.

Banks led the industrials' decline with a large majority of fractional losses.

Mines shipped as Barvue, Campbell, Chibougamau, Normetal, Quebec Copper, Silver Miller and Steep Rock traded lower. Golden Manitou climbed moderately.

Senior golds edged lower in dull trading. Junior producers and prospects, particularly leading issues, drifted downward.

Activity at Ebb

VANCOUVER, June 16—Total sales for the day of just over 50,000 indicated a distinct lack of interest in all sections.

Del Rio at 3.95 and York at 51½ cents were the most active traders, and both were slightly higher.

Western Uranium declined to 3.90 and Quatsino to .44 in a list of mines which finished on the soft side.

New York Declines

NEW YORK, June 16 (AP)—Prices declined today in the stock market on a diminishing volume of trading.

Except for a few issues, losses were fractional in all areas. Gains were scattered and small with few exceptions.

Steels, rails and motors kept a fairly steady appearance. Chemicals were almost all lower.

The market started along an irregular route. Week-end orders soon were filled, and trading became quiet.

Canadian issues were lower.

London Stock Prices

LONDON, June 16 (Reuters)—Copper shares were higher at the start following the raising of the United Kingdom price for the metal by £50 per ton, but prices finished under the day's best as a result of profit-taking.

British government securities were mostly 1/16 of a point lower. Short-dated stocks, however, were supported and gained a small fraction.

Royal Dutch gained ⅝ to 30½. Other oils were dull.

South African gold shares were quietly firm. Diamonds were a little higher.

LONDON, June 16 (AP)—Stock closings: Babcock & Wilcox 60s. 8d. Bents Pure Drug 19s 10½d. Canadian Pacific 84⅝. Central Mining 43 23/32. Consolidated Gold Fields 44s 10½d. Courtaulds 32s 1½d. Aces Capitalize On Sixteen Walks To Edge Students

Next game, tonight: B.C. Forest Products vs. Pitzer and Nez, Central Park, 6.30.

Gar Taylor, manager-coach of Chinese Students' Senior "A" Men's Softball League squad, today knows the true feeling of being the victim of the pitcher's nemesis—the base on balls.

Last night at Central Park, Butler's Aces, playing their fifth game in four days, took full advantage of Taylor's inability to find the plate to dump the Students, 6-1, in a 13-inning thriller.

The result moved the Aces within a half-game of second-place B.C. Forest Products and shoved the Students deeper into the basement.

Taylor's wildness had him in trouble in nearly every inning as he gave up a total of 16 walks but pitched brilliantly in the clutch and left 20 runners stranded.

FURMSTON STARS

The ageless Taylor's gritty hurling slightly overshadowed the fine mound performance of rubber-armed John Furmston. After giving up Students' only run in the first on a pair of singles and his own error, Furmston shut the door for 12 innings and knocked in the tying run in the ninth with a single.

Taylor, backed with some fine fielding by the Students, was coasting on a five-hitter, going into the ninth. Then, Hal Yardley singled and was sacrificed to second. Furmston drilled a ground ball that was too hot to handle to second and Yardley came in with the tying run.

Both hurlers gave every indication of going on all night until Taylor tired in the 13th. With two out and the bases loaded by virtue of three walks, Taylor threw two straight balls to Frank Kilshaw. He yanked himself in favor of John Oliver, who walked Kilshaw after a full count to force in Archie Sluggett with the winning marker.

SETTLE ISSUE

Three straight hits off Oliver produced four runs as the Aces put the contest beyond doubt. Taylor was charged with the loss.

On Sunday, Aces completed a clean sweep of a three-game exhibition series with Seattle Freemont Merchants by edging the visitors, 2-0, behind the six-hit pitching of Archie Sluggett.

Butler's win was highlighted by the sensational fielding display given by the locals. Only once did a Seattle player reach second base.

Pitzer & Nez also fared well in an exhibition triple bill at Ladysmith over the week end. Gasmen edged the New Westerns 5-3, Sunday and played to 4-4 and 1-1 draws in a Saturday double-header.

Visitor Wins Graphic Arts

Charlie Hutton of Vancouver won the 16th annual Graphic Arts golf tournament Sunday with a score of 89-24—65 at the Royal Colwood Golf and Country Club. This is the first time in the history of the event that a visitor has captured the Norman F. Hall Trophy.

Cyril Connorton took second low net with a 102-36—66 with Ken Garland third with 84-16—68.

C. Campbell won the low gross honors with an 83. Alex Walker and Don McDiarmid tied for second place with 86's.

Other winners included Daryl Jenkins, low net first nine; Jack Caddell, second low net, first nine; Mel Lawson and Roy Barnes, low net, second nine; A. Elliott, high score; Denny Boyd and Ken Young, high score, first nine; G. Fyfe, high score, second nine; Ron Jackson, low gross visitors; Slim Jackson, second low gross visitors; W. Gennell, low net visitors; Andy Lakie, second low net visitors.

Rocks Play Tomorrow

Victoria Shamrocks will meet Vancouver in the next Inter-City Lacrosse League game at Memorial Arena tomorrow.

It was erroneously reported Sunday that Nanaimo Native Sons would play here last night but the report was taken from a wrong schedule.

Minor Boxla

Blue Bombers defeated Cougars, 6-0, and Esquimalt downed Saanich, 5-3, in the diaper section of the Greater Victoria Box Lacrosse Association yesterday.

Benwill scored two goals for Blue Bombers and Denny Young, Richard Hodgkinson, Ron Burns and Dick Munn scored the others. For Esquimalt, it was Tom Wyatt with two goals and Craig Booth, Garry Woodward and John McDonald with singletons. David Wooten, Brian Winsby and Barry Dasut were the Saanich scorers.

Max Bentley Said Willing To Coach Calgary Stamps

EDMONTON, June 16 (CP).—Don Fleming in a sports-page column in the Edmonton Journal today says Max Bentley "is all for the idea" of quitting Toronto Maple Leafs to take charge of Calgary Stampeders of the Western Hockey League.

Fleming saw Bentley, pony-sized centre for the National League team, at the Lloydminster, Sask., baseball tournament. Max and brother Doug both play for Saskatoon Gems, who were one of the three teams still in contention for the $3,250 prize-money when rain halted the tournament.

Doug, who took over as playing-coach of Saskatoon Quakers in mid-season after leaving Chicago Black Hawks, led the Saskatchewan team to the Western League championship last season.

NEEDS RELEASE

Fleming reports that Calgary asked Max to take over as coach. Max said he would like to transfer to Stampeders but he would have to be released by Conny Smythe, owner of Toronto Maple Leafs.

"I'm 32 now and it's got to be too rough a deal," Max said about N.H.L. play. "It's no fun any more to keep going in that league when you're black and blue every night."

Fleming said Max was not upset about not having his release from Toronto. Max called Smythe "the greatest guy in the world" and added that Smythe this spring offered him for next season "such a contract that I almost passed out."

Stampeders, coached first by Tommy Anderson and then by Hank Blade, finished out of the Western League playoffs last season.

Few Qualifying Rungs Left In Second Week of Derby

All but three of the 40 qualifying rungs in the second week of the second annual "ladder derby" being staged in Saanich Inlet by the Victoria-Saanich Inlet Anglers' Association were filled over the week end.

Officials, however, stress that reports are incomplete and that fish weighed in at one boathouse yesterday were not reported. It is believed that all rungs have been filled but contestants can still get on the ladder today if they catch a salmon weighing more than the weight of the last qualifier. On the basis of incomplete returns through yesterday, this was only three and a half pounds.

Forty contestants will qualify each of the 10 weeks with the 400 qualifiers to fish off on August 24 for the five main prizes, worth more than $3,000. The prize list for the fish-off is topped by a $2,100 Chris-Craft express cruiser complete with a 25 horse-power outboard motor. Second prize is a refrigerator, third a radio-gramophone console and the fourth, donated by the boatmen, an electric washing machine. The fifth prize, an electric food mixer will go to the winner of the hidden-weight competition.

In addition, there are five weekly prizes to the value of $50. Anglers qualified for the fish-off are still eligible to compete for the weekly prizes.

HASLAM TOPS

This week's ladder is topped by J. Haslam with a 21-pounder. It was reported unofficially that Bill Moore is also high up with a 20-pounder caught yesterday.

Aaronson's catch topped the Sunday entrants with D. W. McDonald next in line with a 19-pounder. Most of the fish weighed in for the competition Sunday were taken in the Brentwood area.

Heavy Toll of U.S. Girls Taken in O.C. Golf Meet

TROON, Scotland, June 16 (AP).—Dot Kirby, U.S. champion, and five other Americans failed to survive the first two rounds of the British women's amateur golf championship tournament today as the field of 10 American entrants withered to four.

Mae Murray, Claire Doran, Polly Riley and Mrs. Frank Goldthwaite of Fort Worth, Tex., were the only U.S. women left in the play over the 6,500-yard Troon course.

Miss Kirby was eliminated in the first round by Pat O'Sullivan, 3 and 2, but the New England girl joined her on the sidelines after a second-round loss, 4 and 2, to Philomena Garvey of Ireland.

SECOND ROUND TOUGH

The British girls, who won their first Curtis Cup victory over the U.S. nine days ago, were out to prove it was no fluke. All the American Curtis Cup players, except Miss Kirby, sailed through the first round but four lost their second-round matches.

Petite Miss Murray knocked out Mrs. Zara Bolton, 3 and 2, then routed Mrs. A. C. Allen, 6 and 4.

Miss Doran trounced Jean McCulloch of Scotland, 6 and 5, in the first round. Trailing most of the way in her match with Jean Donald of Scotland, Miss Doran finally squared matters on the 16th, won the 17th and halved the 18th, to win, 1 up.

After an easy first-round victory over Mrs. John Wylie of Scotland, 4 and 3, Miss Riley had a stiff battle before she conquered Mrs. Kyle of England, 3 and 1.

Mrs. Goldthwaite, non-playing Curtis Cup captain, drew a first-round bye and then whipped Mrs. Jean Murray of Scotland, 3 and 1.

GRACE DE MOSS OUT.

Grace De Moss downed Mrs. John Beck of England, 1 up, on the 19th, in the first round. In the afternoon, Miss De Moss fell before Jane Machin of England on the 19th hole.

Dot Kielty breezed past Megan Coleman of Scotland, 7 and 5, but fell before Janette S. Robertson of Scotland, 3 and 2, in the second round.

Marjorie Lindsay bowed to Elizabeth Price of England, 3 and 2, after defeating Mrs. John Morland of England, 3 and 2, in the opening round.

Elaine Cranston of Pasadena, Calif., was eliminated in the first round, 9 and 7, by Frances Stephens, English Cuttis Cupper.

Garriott Out Stealing Home, Tyees Rally in Ninth Nipped

Victoria Tyees failed in a ninth-inning bid to save a game from Tri-City Braves at Royal Athletic Park last night when manager Lee Garriott became the final out in the opinion of plate-umpire Red Eiler when he tried to steal home with the tying run.

Trailing, 6-1, when they came up to bat for the last time, the Tyees got back in the game with the help of two errors by Tri-City shortstop Don Lopes. A base on balls and two singles, plus the boots, chased four Tyees across the plate and left Garriott on third with Bob Moniz at the plate with two out.

DUBIOUS CALL

Garriott, who appeared only half-serious about his attempt at first, started towards the plate when Tri-City manager Charlie Gassaway started his wind-up. He kept coming and Gassaway appeared to momentarily stop his motion. His throw to catcher Nick Pesut and Garriott arrived almost simultaneously but Eiler threw up his hands and didn't pay any attention to Garriott's contentions that Gassaway had balked and that he had eluded the tag with his slide.

Up until the ninth, the Tyees could do little with Ralph Romero, ace Tri-City right-hander, although he was obviously weakening after the fifth inning. The Tyees had a great chance in the sixth but could only score once, Lilio Marcucci grounding into an inning-ending double play with the bases loaded. They missed a chance again in the seventh and were wiped out in the eighth with another double play.

ERRORS HELPFUL

In the ninth, Marcucci led off with a base on balls and everyone was safe when Lopes dropped the throw from Romero, who took pinch-hitter Cal McIrvin's bounder to try for the force at second. Then Lopes let Jim Clark's hard-hit ground ball through his legs with a cinch double play in the making and the Tyees had the bags loaded. Don Pries scored two with a long single to bring Gassoway to Romero's rescue.

Garriott promptly greeted the new pitcher with a line single to left field to score Clark. Chuck Abernathy neatly sacrificed Pries to third and Garriott to second and Pries made it 6-5 as Granny Gladstone was tossed out. Then came Garriott's vain bid for the tying run.

It was a close decision. It appeared from the press box as if Garriott was out but there also appeared to be some justification in the claim that Gassaway had balked.

COST TYEES

However, the call that hurt the Tyees most came in the seventh and it cost the Tyees a run, which turned out to be the margin of victory. One was out and Lopes was running at first when Romero pulled back from an attempted bunt with two strikes against him. The pitch from Eric Gard broke squarely across the plate waist-high but Eiler called it a ball. The Tri-City pitcher moved his runner up on the next pitch and Vic Buccola singled home Lopes.

Gard, trying for his fifth straight win, got off to a rocky start but got out of the first inning with only two runs after a single, base on balls and hit batsman put the first three runners on. A squeeze bunt gave the Braves their third run off Gard in the fourth and they got their fourth in the seventh. The Duncan southpaw took the loss, his first of the season. Bill Wisneski finished up and was charged with two runs. The first was earned and the second was a ninth-inning home run by Lopes.

INDIANS LOSE TOO

However, the loss didn't turn out to be too bad for most Victoria fans, Wenatchee Chiefs downing the second-place Spokane Indians, 6-1, in the only other scheduled game. Charlie Oubre scattered five hits to record the win while his teammates made the most of four Spokane errors. He lost his shutout when rookie first-baseman Ed Bouchee hit his first home run in the ninth.

The setback left the Indians still five games behind the Tyees.

On Sunday, the Tyees completed their road trip with a record of five wins and one defeat by taking a pair from the Senators at Salem, 1-0 and 5-3.

LORINO IN SHUTOUT

Ben Lorino and Garriott combined to beat Ray McNulty in the seven-inning opener. Lorino chalked up his second straight shutout and fourth of the season with a neat three-hitter while Garriott picked on a 2-0 pitch in the fourth inning and drove it over the fence for the game's only run. It was Lorino's ninth victory in 12 decisions.

Cal McIrvin won the second game for his eighth win out of 10 decisions. He was only in trouble once but shut off the Senators after they had scored their three runs to make his 5-0 lead stand up. The Tyees cashed in on errors to plate all of their runs in one inning.

Combined with Spokane's split with Wenatchee and Vancouver's split with Tri-City, the double victory gained a full game for the Tyees over their nearest pursuers.

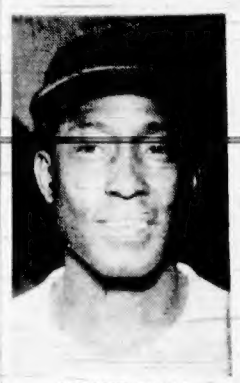
Seeks 10th Win



JEHOSIE HEARD

Ace of Victoria Tyees' brilliant southpaw mound staff, Heard will oppose Tri-City Braves at Royal Athletic Park tonight, seeking his 10th victory of season. Heard lost his first start of season, then won six straight before being tough-luck loser in both ends of doubleheader at Salem. He currently has three-game winning streak and shares honor with teammate Ben Lorino as winningest pitcher in W.I.L.

"Citizens' Night" Scheduled Thursday at Baseball Park

Thursday night's W.I.L. game between Victoria Tyees and the Salem Senators is to be designated as "Citizens' Night" with a $700 Westinghouse television set to be given away to a fan.

The terse announcement made last night by club officials put an end to rumors that Alderman Waldo Skillings would be the guest of honor at a special night and receive on behalf of the city a payment on arrears owing for the rental of Royal Athletic Park.

It was also announced that Mayor Claude Harrison and all Victoria aldermen will be extended an invitation to attend and that the municipalities of Saanich, Oak Bay and Esquimalt will be asked to send an official representative. Mayor Harrison will be asked to make the draw for the television set.

Beyond that, club officials had little to say. They were reticent about a Saturday report that Alderman Skillings would be spotlighted and presented with "gifts" from baseball fans as well as a payment on account. One, however, did state that this had never been the intention and denied that there had been any authorization for a "Skillings' Night."

Tillicum handed Army its third setback of the current Senior B Men's Softball League by downing the Soldiers, 9-6, last night.

The win moved the Clubmen into second place.

Jack Elliott held the Soldiers hitless until the sixth and withstood a ninth-inning rally that saw them score three runs on four hits.

Spurs Win Again

NEW YORK, June 16 (AP).—Tottenham Hotspurs handed Manchester United their second successive whipping within 24 hours at Yankee Stadium yesterday.

A crowd of 24,582 saw the Spurs trounce the English Football League champions, 7-1 after building up a 4-1 halftime margin.

Cameron Upset by Parker In Club Tennis Tourney

Veteran Jack Parker defeated fourth-seeded Warren Cameron, 5-7, 6-4, 6-4, to provide the day's only upset as play continued in the Victoria Lawn Tennis and Badminton Club annual tennis championships yesterday.

The match lasted two hours and finished in semi-darkness.

Cameron troubled by a sore back, was slow in getting started but, after being down, 5-2, took five straight games to win the first set. Both the second and final sets were featured by long rallies but Parker's overhead smash was sound and proved to be the deciding factor in the hard-fought match that produced the most interesting tennis to date.

Top-seeded Ronnie Mitchell was extended, 6-4, 7-5, to defeat Daryl Thompson, Canada's ace badminton player in a match featured by long base-line rallies.

Thompson led the second set, 5-3, but Mitchell played brilliant steady tennis to take four straight games and the match.

Today's draw:

C.A.H.A. Bans East-West Transfers of Junior Players

MINAKI, Ont., June 16 (CP).—The flow of junior hockey player talent from Western Canada to the East was effectively choked off today for two seasons by the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association, governing body of the sport in the country.

With only a few stated exceptions—among them students, armed forces personnel and players moved by their employers—no west-to-east transfers will be granted juniors from the West for the 1952-53 and 1953-54 seasons.

REBUILD WEST

Officials hope the action will give the West time to build up its Memorial Cup contenders. The once-mighty West, which has produced some of the greatest junior clubs in Canada, has won only one game in 13 against Eastern clubs in the cup final in the last three years.

The association's decision was the highlight of a day-long meeting of officials from all provinces except Newfoundland here for the association's four-day annual meeting. The highly-explosive question of calling for a general revision of the C.A.H.A.'s agreement with the National Hockey League was deferred for further study.

No discussion was made on the agreement resolution, presented by the Ottawa and District Amateur Hockey Association, but it is expected some harsh words will be said about the agreement when the issue reaches the general meeting tomorrow or Wednesday.

The meeting was given registration and financial reports for the last calendar year. It also dealt briefly with resolutions brought in by various provincial branches, and accepted the resignation of John F. (Bunny) Ahearne as European representative of the C.A.H.A.

The question of arrangements already made between east and west clubs for transfer of western juniors next season was raised but officials said the resolution "would over-ride any agreements between any professional club and its sponsored team in the west."

The meeting also adopted a resolution presented by the Quebec Amateur Hockey Association asking that no change be made in the age limits of all categories of players. Alberta had asked that the junior "A" age limit be raised from 20 to 21.

NO STRENGTHENING

A Manitoba resolution asking that no strengthening of teams should be allowed in Allan Cup playoffs was adopted.

Ahearne resigned today as European representative in a surprise move.

"In fairness to everybody it is best that I resign," he said.

The Irish-born executive held the European position since 1936. He referred to a clash he had with president Doug Grimston of New Westminster, B.C., at the winter Olympic Games in Norway.

Grimston said Ahearne had beaten him to the punch.

"I had intended to ask him for his resignation but he had taken the air out of my balloon," said Grimston.

DEFICIT SHOWN

The association showed a deficit of nearly $20,000 last year and a drop in player registrations of 6,359. The deficit was the first in 15 years. The financial report showed disbursements of $174,272 against receipts of $154,410 for an over-all deficit of $19,862.

Gate receipts from Allan, Memorial Cup and Major Series total $148,801, with the Memorial Cup taking in a record-breaking $106,886. The C.A.H.A. paid out $104,500 in subsidies and bonuses to competing clubs.

Bobby Thomson, who put the New York Giants into the world series last year with that dramatic home run, may have righted the skidding National League champions yesterday.

Thomson came up in the ninth inning at New York with the Giants trailing, 7-4, and the bags loaded. He faced righthander Willard Schmidt, sent in by St. Louis manager Ed Stanky to pitch to the righthanded-hitting Thomson. The New York outfielder-third baseman promptly made Schmidt the losing pitcher by pounding his first delivery out of the park.

MAGLIE OFF FORM

The victory moved the Giants within three games of the Brooklyn Dodgers and partially compensated for Sunday's embarrassment, when Sal Maglie failed to hold an 11-0 lead and the Cards went on to win the first game of doubleheader. It was the fourth straight time the Giant ace had been shelled from the mound. He was hit hard yesterday, too, in a relief role and had to be replaced.

Enos Slaughter batted in five runs and Sollie Hemus hit two home runs to spark the Cardinal comeback Sunday. However, Dave Koslo, who makes a specialty of beating the Red Birds, righted the Giants with a 3-0 shutout in the second game. It was his 11th straight win over St. Louis.

REDS REVOLT

Other National League action Sunday saw the Brooklyn Dodgers finally lose to Cincinnati. The Reds, smarting after 10 successive setbacks this season, scored six runs in the seventh to come out on top, 7-4. Grady Hatton's three-run homer drove in the winning run.

Chicago Cubs' mad dash came to an abrupt end at Boston, where the Braves got some excellent pitching from Jim Wilson and Max Surkont, a couple of Coast League draftees, to score 4-1 and 2-0 victories. Hank Sauer, who went into the doubleheader hitless in his last 14 trips, again failed to hit and without their slugger performing, the Cubs could only get nine hits in 18 innings, only two of them off Surkont.

YANKS PAD LEAD

Sunday play in the American League was featured by the New York Yankees back in their familiar spot as league leaders. The world champions, who have won 13 out of 15 games this month, two-timed Cleveland to move a game and a half ahead of Boston Red Sox and two and a half ahead of the Indians.

The largest crowd of the major league season—69,468—was a bit disappointed as Ed Lopat tamed the Indians in the first game, 8-2, and Allie Reynolds came on to save Bob Kuzava's 4-3 decision in the finale.

It was Lopat's 34th win over Cleveland in 43 decisions. He got a big lead in the second when his teammates scored six runs, Micky Mantle batting in three of them with a home run.

Meanwhile, the Red Sox lost ground as they could do no better than split with the White Sox. The St. Louis Browns took a pair from Philadelphia Athletics with Satchell Paige saving the 6-3 opener in relief and George Schmees breaking up the 7-6 series-ender with an 11th-inning single.

Washington Senators gained a split with Detroit Tigers, winning the nightcap, 4-2, behind Walt Masterson, pitching his first complete game in two years.

Golf--- Here's How

By SAM SNEAD
Golf's Greatest Player-Teacher

The smoother and rounder your backswing, the easier it is to make your downswing perfectly. For, unless you force the club out of line by trying to apply too much power or by moving your head, the club, in the downswinging, tends to retrace the path it took going back and up. And if you swing this way your full power is applied correctly to the ball. When you step up to address the ball you must have in mind the loft of your clubface and the kind of flight it should put on the ball. Then take your stance accordingly. The ball with a No. 5 iron, because its face is the middle loft of the clubs from No. 1 though No. 9, is placed exactly off the centre point between your heels. If you use a No. 4 iron, a less lofted club, position the ball about half an inch left of centre, one inch for a No. 3 iron, etc. For clubs more highly lofted than the No. 5 you reverse this procedure. Get it?

Bob Morrison Wins Eighth City Golf Crown

Bob Morrison overcame the stiff wind at the Uplands Golf Club Sunday to capture his eighth city golf championship.

Co-leader after the first 36 holes, Morrison fired a one-over-par 71 on the morning round to practically clinch the title and ended up with a 75 in the afternoon. Coupled with his 74-70—144 on the first 36 holes, the rounds gave Morrison a 72-hole total of 290.

Bill McColl, one stroke behind Morrison at the start of play Sunday, could not keep pace with the leader and ended up in second place with a 293. McColl shot 74's on both final rounds.

Bob Fleming, the defending champion and co-oleader after the first 36 holes, blew wide open. He took a 12 over par 82 in the morning and found the wind just as bothersome in the afternoon, [illegible] with a 79 for a 303 total, ninth in the list.

Only five golfers were able to shoot under 300. Jim Robertson shot a 71 on his last round to take third place with 294. Hugh Morrison was fourth with 296 and Vic Painter had a 299.

Fleming took low gross honors for the first 36 holes and Eric Barber took a low gross on the second 36. M. Carlow captured the low net for the tourney and Derek McCooey was runnerup. Helmuth Goertz captured low net for the first 36 holes and N. Galbraith was low net on the second 36.

Gunners Keep Gordon Cup, Edge Scots by One Point

A team of 75th (B.C.) Heavy Anti-Aircraft Regiment marksmen retained the Gordon Trophy by edging Canadian Scottish by one point at Heals Range Sunday.

The winners, sparked by Maj. A. M. Taylor Spittal's possible, took a four-point lead on the 200-yard range, 287-283. Mrs. Eileen Learoyd carded a possible at the 500-yard range as the Scottish outscored the Gunners, 284-281, to reduce the margin to a single point. Each team scored 265 at the 600-yard range, giving the Gunners a final margin, 833-832.

The 75th (B.C.) H.A.A. Regt. "B" team finished third with an 827 total, followed by the 40th Tech. Sqdn., R.C.E.M.E. with 805, the R.C.N. "A" team with 801, and the R.C.N. "B" team with 734.

OTHER POSSIBLES

Other possibles were scored by Capt. W. B. McKay of the R.C.E.M.E. at the 200-yard range and F. Morse of the same team at the 500-yard range.

Maj. C. A. Dadds presented the 50th Gordon Highlanders' Trophy and souvenir ashtrays to the winning team. Mrs. Learoyd received an ashtray for the highest individual score by reversion from Maj. Spittall.

Humanist Seeking To Establish Idea

Victoria will become the capital for a world-wide "humanism" movement if the plans of the movement's leader, Dr. C. A. Kirkwood, late of Chicago, come to happy fruition.

Dr. Kirkwood, who looks about 50 and claims to be 81, said he had been studying the question of how to cure the world's ills for many years.

He described himself as a medical man who had run a drug store and studied optics, medicine and dentistry."

Solution to the world's ills lies in an international application of his 20th century humanism, he said yesterday, and first committees to implement the program would be established on Vancouver Island.

The humanist said he was born in Ontario and liked Canadian laws. He hadn't tried to start any committees in Chicago, he reported, because the U.S. city was "too crooked."

He defined humanism as "the humane treatment of people, one to another."

STOP WAR DEAD

Application of the program would teach everybody to treat his fellow-man humanly, he said, and would "stop war dead in its tracks."

The program will be promoted by organizing 99 per cent of the people in each nation to form "up-to-date laws suited to the needs of each individual nation."

Headquarters for the humanism would be right here in Victoria, Dr. Kirkwood said. The original committees he hopes to form here will provide an example to be followed all over this troubled world.

Humanism will not get under way for a couple of months, however. The self-styled leader of the movement said he was going to Stewart, B.C. "to swing [illegible] properties."

When he returns, he announced, he will get his program rolling.

Air Enthusiast Joins Group

Fifteen-year-old Gary Mesher, 167 Eldon Place, yesterday became the thousandth member of the Model Aeronautics Association of Canada—a nation-wide organization of model aircraft enthusiasts.

Gary has been a member of the Victoria Model Airplane League since early this year, and it was his association there that led to membership in the national body, with which the local group is closely affiliated.

The young man's entry into the Canadian model plane association was directed by Douglas Collis, Vancouver Island zone director for the national group, and its tenth member.

BRIGHT TOES

Open-toed summer shoes are pretties when toenails accent the color scheme of your outfit. Give yourself a pedicure exactly the same as you do a manicure. But use an extra long-lasting nail lacquer—because open toes so often get stubbed!

A Hearing Aid is priceless

...but it is often overpriced!

USUALLY, the more you pay for something you buy, the better the quality. But this is not true when you buy a hearing aid! Prices range from about $85—the price of a Zenith "Royal" or "Super Royal"—to $200 or more for other instruments. Zenith believes that no hearing aid need sell for more than $85. Even if Zenith—with its long and impressive 33-year background in electronics—wanted to build a hearing aid to sell at $150 or $200 or more, we could not manufacture a better instrument or obtain more efficient materials than now go into the $85 Zenith! Yes, only one price, $85; only one quality—Zenith's finest. (Bone Conduction Devices available at moderate extra cost.) Zenith says to you "Hear better or pay nothing" ... and backs it up with an unconditional, 10-day, money-back guarantee! Zenith Hearing Aids are accepted by the Council on Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation of the American Medical Association. And Zenith urges that you consult your physician before buying any hearing aid.

Send for Zenith's free book containing startling and valuable information about hearing aid claims. It's yours for the asking. Its title: "Frauds and Facts"—and it will be mailed, postpaid, in a plain envelope. Write today to Zenith Radio Corporation of Canada, Ltd., Dept. FA7C, Canada Trust Bldg., Windsor, Ont., Canada.

Consult your classified telephone directory for local Zenith Hearing Aid dealer.

Forty Seats in Doubt B.C. Returns Show

VANCOUVER June 16 (CP) — Struggling returns from Thursday's provincial election showed today that the fate of 40 seats will be in doubt until the votes are counted under the preferential voting system.

Election of eight candidates on the first count and will be dropped when the second count starts July 3. Second choices on these ballots could give a new look toward deciding winners of the seats.

Additional returns from the liquor and daylight polls showed the axes of cabinet ministers marked their second choice. Provincial Secretary Wesley Cecil Hilborn placed last on the first count and will be dropped when the second count starts July 3. Second choices on these ballots could give a new look toward deciding winners of the seats.

Additional returns from the liquor and daylight polls showed the axes of cabinet ministers marked their second choice.

'Walkout' Brings Charges

VANCOUVER June 16 (CP) — International Woodworkers of America tonight issued a statement charging the manager of the operators' representatives John Billings with "taking a page from Adolf Hitler's book."

Last Saturday Billings placed last Saturday's decision to call off the strike of 12,000 coastal woodworkers.

The IWA statement charged that Billings' walkout brought about a complete breakdown in negotiations. IWA president Stewart Alderty said the union is ready to meet . . . operators.

An IWA spokesman said the operators' representatives left the meeting at the suggestion of a representative of the Labor Relations Board so that the board could be acquainted with the state of the talks. He spoke of the operators' representatives waited at the Labor Relations Board headquarters for two hours in case they were needed.

Shipping Firms, Guild

Dispute Meeting Planned

VANCOUVER June 16 (CP) — A meeting of a subcommittee of the conciliation board dealing with the dispute between the Canadian Merchant Service Guild and six British Columbia shipping companies.

The guild representing masters and mates of coastal and inland boats and barges is asking for a 40-hour week and a wage increase of 25 per cent.

The companies have offered a 7½ per cent increase. They say is in keeping with the rise in the cost of living since a two-year contract was signed last year.

Discussions are going on under a clause which permits reopening of wage terms.

Richard M. Jones, QC, chairman of the board, chairman R. A. Mulholland for the companies and Capt. Harry L. Hansen represents the guild.

The board is expected to hear arguments between the companies and the National Association of Marine Engineers of Canada who are asking an $80 monthly across the board increase, with the companies counter-offering with a 7½ per cent offer.

Breaks in Water Main Crimp City's Supply

WHITEHORSE, June 16 (AP) — A serious water shortage threatened the city of Whitehorse today after a 12-inch water main developed its second break in four days. Officials of the Yukon Brewery and Canada Cold Storage companies reported their plants would be closed all or part of the day. Approximately 1,000 persons are employed at the three plants.

Alderman Sees City As Second Blackpool

BY BARRY YOUNG
Colonist Business Editor

Victoria was seen as a Blackpool of the Western World by Ald. R. P. MacMillan when he advocated the development of the Dallas Road waterfront at the annual meeting of the tourist trade group of Victoria Chamber of Commerce yesterday.

Tourist Chief

G. CONWAY PARROTT

[illegible] Mr. Parrott, who succeeds Gordon Helmcken as general [illegible] of Victoria Chamber of Commerce [illegible] M. V. [illegible] vice-president.

The alderman said the first step should be to have a floating pool, erected at Harrison Point.

"It is too cold to swim there in the sea and it is too cold for people to sit about in the wind," said Mr. MacMillan. "My idea of a bathing pool is one that would have a sea wall eight feet, grass sloped around it to shield bathers and swimmers from the wind."

He said that with such pools [illegible] a small boat to the pool and [illegible] bathing of the water would be more easy [illegible] the sun would do the rest.

As a long-term plan Mr. MacMillan foresaw a Dallas Road waterfront that would have parks on which there would be moonlight dancing and with many other attractions to bring tourists to Victoria and to keep them here.

TOURIST PROMOTION

"When some of our aldermen can see further than the end of their noses we may get some progress," he said. "At the moment we spend a lot of money on tourist promotion and we don't get much for it."

Ald. MacMillan was supported by retiring president Gordon Helgeson who said [illegible] should be done about [illegible] trade.

[illegible] Courtney Harbour wants to see the city's tourist part on a much [illegible] and evening [illegible] business.

"[illegible] the city [illegible] promotion," said Mr. Harbour. He [illegible] a few weeks ago [illegible] the changing of the guard at Buckingham Palace [illegible] Whitehall.

PROGRAM WANTED

F. G. Denny, president of the Chamber of Commerce, asked the tourist group to announce a [illegible] and tourist promotion program [illegible] activities.

He suggested as long-term projects:

1. An effort to have the steamship service [illegible] extended.

2. To support a later date than the first Monday in September for Labor Day.

3. For resorts to remain open longer in September than they do at present.

As a short-term plan he thought the tourist group should attempt to forge greater unity to forth[illegible] tourist events such as the Highland Gathering, Ali Sooke Day and other events.

[illegible] MacMillan [illegible] Victoria de[illegible] not to have a recreation [illegible] Mr. Harbour.

[illegible] Victoria [illegible] Mr. Harbour.

[illegible] Ald. MacMillan. "The navy and army would not have taken part because of the period of mourning [illegible] were other difficulties."

The decision was not out [illegible] said Mr. Harbour. It was suggested that a [illegible] be sent to Mr. Harbour.

"Let's put [illegible] on the agenda," said Alderman [illegible].

[illegible] G. Conway Parrott will present a program to the chamber directors Friday.

As a solution to the problem of lengthening the tourist season in Victoria, it was suggested that cheaper fares during the off season might help but this drew the fire of members connected with the tourist industry.

UNPOPULAR PRACTICE

George Pardoe of Black Ball Line said [illegible] practice was not popular [illegible] transportation [illegible] for most of the [illegible].

[illegible] Canadian Air Lines said that the better way was to attempt to prolong the tourist season.

Ald. James Nesbitt, a hotel keeper was against lower tariffs in the off season trade.

Tarte Aux Dattes (Date Pie) is the favorite of Mrs. Victor Leigh of 3200 Beach Drive.

Ingredients:

- Juice and grated rind of one good-sized lemon
- 2 cups of dates, pitted
- ½ cup of brown sugar
- ½ teaspoon salt
- ½ cup of cold water

Method: Cook dates with sugar and salt in the water till they form a thick paste, break up with spoon as they soften. Add juice and rind of the lemon and put the mixture into a pie plate covered with a layer of pastry dough and cook in oven 350 degrees F. until the pastry is cooked and golden. [illegible] with 2 egg whites and 4 dessert spoons sugar. Return to oven to cook meringue at 300 degrees F. Serves 6 to 8.

Every school child knows the story of Cinderella, but few probably realize that there actually was such a person, and that she lived in Egypt 4,000 years ago! Her real name was Rhodopis. Legend has it, that while bathing in the Nile one day this lovely maiden saw an eagle swoop out of the sky and fly off with one of her slippers which she had left on the bank. By some miraculous coincidence the bird, winging its way over Memphis, dropped the slipper right into the lap of Egypt's King Mycerinus. Taken by the beauty and daintiness of the tiny sandal, the Pharaoh immediately set out to find its beautiful owner. Needless to say tit happens in all good Cinderella stories), the king finally found Rhodopis and married her. He crowned her Queen of all Egypt and built her the fabulous Third Pyramid of Gizeh—a monument which stands today in honor of the original Cinderella.

Government Plan Help to Debtors

EDMONTON, June 16 (CP) — The debtors' assistance board set up by the Alberta government in 1943, has helped thousands of Alberta debtors and creditors to reach agreements.

In the last three years the board has settled 2,722 cases involving debts reaching nearly $3,000,000.

The board's object is to advise and assist debtors and mediate in matters between debtors and creditors.

Creditors as well as debtors may seek assistance from the board in an attempt to negotiate amicable settlements. Young married couples who have committed themselves too heavily on instalment purchases make up a large percentage of the present cases.

A debtor faced with foreclosure may appeal to the board to arrange for extension of time for payment with the creditor.

Since the board succeeded the debt adjustment board established 20 years previously it has helped thousands of people escape court action and hundreds of creditors who otherwise might never have received payment.

Donjek Bridge Completed By Engineers

WHITEHORSE, Y.T., June 16 (CHP) — Heavy traffic rolled across the Donjek bridge, the largest building project ever undertaken by Canadian Army engineers as the vital new link on the Alaska Highway went into operation today.

The bridge located near Whitehorse 240 miles south of the Arctic circle was opened by Brig. J. L. Moncke, Quartermaster colonel of the engineers.

The 1,000-foot massive concrete and steel bridge spans the turbulent Donjek River. It replaces a wooden trestle bridge that fell victim of flash floods every year since the strategic highway was opened.

During construction 55,000 cubic yards of permafrost had to be blasted, scraped and moved to provide approach roads. Sappers blasted through two feet of volcanic ash to clear solid ice deposited there during the ice age.

40th Anniversary

Not everyone is happy to have another personal birthday anniversary, but we believe that business anniversaries are always noted with a certain satisfaction, because they demonstrate that the firm has continued to serve well.

The individual, you see, continues to exist whether he's good or bad, useful or otherwise. With a business organization, this is not true: Only a firm with policies which meet with public approval, and win public patronage, can hope to survive.

It is with real and understandable satisfaction, therefore, that we observe this, our fortieth anniversary.

FOR TUESDAY, JUNE 17, 1952

Today's Quotation: "Wisdom is not finally tested by the schools, wisdom cannot be pass'd from one having it to another not having it, wisdom is of the soul, is not susceptible of proof, is its own proof."—Walt Whitman.

Tuesday for Everyone: Morning requires tact and care in dealings with others or in employment service, health matters. Later: be conventional, circumspect, economical. Use care re finances and possessions. Look for Your Birthdate and Birthsign Below:

March 21 to April 19 (Aries)—Allow things adequate time to work out. Don't be upset; maintain equilibrium. Protect assets.

April 20 to May 20 (Taurus)—Cement bonds with those about you in the afternoon. Earlier: meet stubborness of others patiently.

May 21 to June 20 (Gemini)—Clear away odds and ends of chores. Be poised concerning obstacles; accept them as a challenge only.

June 21 to July 22 (Cancer)—A [illegible] to friendly contacts during the afternoon and evening. Earlier: if those about you are upset, don't let this rattle you.

July 23 to Aug. 22 (Leo)—Be cautious, conscientious in the morning. Later: attend to duties or parental items; bring wit into play.

Aug. 23 to Sept. 22 (Virgo)—Morning: be understanding with others; use care en route. Later: express yourself well; create ideas, plans.

Sept. 23 to Oct. 22 (Libra)—Don't try to rush things through; be patient to obtain best results. Straighten finances.

Oct. 23 to Nov. 21 (Scorpio)—Listen to what associates have to say. Be calm, plodding; allow time to work things out.

Nov. 22 to Dec. 21 (Sagittarius)—Get something important done in the afternoon and evening. Earlier: take it easy; don't tire yourself.

Dec. 22 to Jan. 19 (Capricorn)—Morning: take no chances, especially where love and money are involved. Be with folks whose company you enjoy; strengthen bonds in the afternoon and evening.

Jan. 20 to Feb. 18 (Aquarius)—See that your moves do not imperil basic issues. Be considerate of those around you.

Feb. 19 to March 20 (Pisces)—Don't let word received discourage you; accept it philosophically. Listen to the counsel of elders.

Planning ahead: Good for entertaining, sociability, etc.; June 19, evening of 23, evening of 24 and 25, afternoon of 26, 27; July 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, daytime of 10th.

Collector For Meters Fined $100

Lucien J. Vaast, 3273 Wicklow, city meter collector who pleaded guilty to retaining coins from the parking units, was fined $100 in police court yesterday.

In passing the sentence, Magistrate H. C. Hall noted the good past record of the accused, and the circumstances of the present [illegible] He mentioned that Vaast's job with the city had "automatically gone."

Vaast was apprehended by police several days ago in the wake of an investigation launched by a notable decrease in revenue from parking meters.

Vancouver Man Sentenced

A sentence of six months in jail was imposed yesterday upon Sham Williams, Vancouver, on a charge of taking a car without the consent of its owner.

The charge was laid June 8. In provincial police court last Tuesday Williams was fined $200 on an impaired driving charge, or in default 30 days. Yesterday's sentence will run concurrently with the earlier sentence.

Williams was apprehended by the R.C.M.P. in the Goldstream area after reports of a hit-and-run accident. At the time of his arrest, R.C.M.P. did not know the [illegible] driving was a stolen vehicle. The car belongs to Joseph Penner of this city.

Maurice Fraser, 38, Sherwood Hotel, was released on $500 bail on a charge of retaining a carpenter's plane, allegedly stolen from a Yates Street Cafe last week.

MANY TOOLS

The plane was one of many tools reported stolen from the eating establishment. Total value of the missing articles was claimed to be about $400.

Fraser was remanded without plea until tomorrow.

Albert Hayward, 1295 Hastings, was fined $35 and will have his driver's license suspended after pleading guilty to a careless driving charge. The car he was driving [illegible] phone pole on Burnside Road. Damage to his car totaled about $150; to the pole, $175. A report of the case will go to the superintendent of motor vehicles.

Frances H. Carr, 2056 Allenby Road, was fined $30 after pleading guilty to a violation of a restricted driver's license.

LICENSE SUSPENDED

Stanley Palmer, James Island, paid a $35 fine and will have his driver's license suspended after pleading guilty to a careless driving charge dated May 31. His car was in a collision with another on Blanshard Street that evening. Damage totaled $150. A report will be sent to the superintendent of motor vehicles.

Sidney Camp, 937 Johnson Street, pleaded guilty to a careless driving charge and was fined $30.

Willis H. Clarke, 320 Menzies, was fined $25 after pleading guilty to driving without a current year's driver's license.

U.K. Expert Gives Nod To Musicians

Canada's budding musicians got a nod of approval from famous English music-master Dr. William Neil McKie yesterday.

The organist at Westminster Abbey, London, England, reached this city at the week end.

He will join Geoffrey Tankard in conducting examinations of L.R.S.M. candidates in this area for the Royal Schools of Music Associated Board.

Dr. McKie said he found musical work in all phases and grades in this country of the highest quality.

He said it was "stimulating to find such extraordinary good work among the juniors."

Stand Voiced On Affiliation

The Chinese Benevolent Association was in no way connected with any political party before the recent election, a spokesman for the association said yesterday.

"The association encouraged all Chinese to exercise their franchise but was not campaigning for, or connected with, any political party," the spokesman said.

He said several parties set up campaign headquarters in the Chinese community but none were sponsored by the association.

Prisoner Subdued After Roof Tussle

PRINCE TOWN, Devon, England, June 16 (AP).—A tough long-term prisoner, trying to break out of Dartmoor Prison, was finally subdued by a guard Sunday night after a desperate tussle on the edge of a 60-foot roof. Before he was overpowered, the convict had held the prison staff off for two hours, pelting them with glass and slate from the roof. He had escaped earlier from a punishment cell and scaled the wall of the building while the rest of the inmates were attending a recreational lecture.

Uncle Wiggily Story - - -

By Howard Garis

AT THE WINDOW

The Lady Mouse Teacher in Hollow Tree School was telling her pupils about examinations when, suddenly, there sounded a noise at one of the open windows. That is where yesterday's story ended, if you will please remember; a banging noise at one of the windows in the schoolroom. There were wire screens in all the windows of Hollow Tree School to keep out flies and mosquitoes.

"Now I will tell you about the examinations," said Miss Mouse. Then the noise sounded again. It was a bing-bang noise against the wire screen.

"I must ask you boys, if you please," said the Lady Mouse Teacher in a kind voice. "I must ask you, please, not to throw pieces of blackboard chalk at the window screens." Miss Mouse looked all around the room to see which of her boy pupils she thought had been throwing small pieces of chalk at the window screen. Buster raised his right front paw.

"Yes, Buster, what is it, please?" asked Miss Mouse. "Was it you who threw the chalk?"

The rabbit scout stood up at his desk and said:

"No, Miss Mouse. I didn't throw any chalk. I don't believe any of us boys threw chalk, Miss Mouse."

"Well, I am sure none of the girls did," went on Miss Mouse. "So I thought perhaps one of you boys had done it."

Again sounded the bing-bang noise at the screen in the window back of the teacher's desk.

"There it is again!" exclaimed Miss Mouse. "Someone is throwing something against the window screen!"

"I know who it is!" exclaimed the rabbit scout.

"Well, Buster," spoke Miss Mouse kindly, "I would not like you, or anyone in Hollow Tree School, to be a tattletale. But I wish whoever is throwing chalk at our window screens would stop. We must get on with the examinations."

"Nobody in our school is throwing chalk," went on Buster. "That noise comes from outside the screen. I know who is doing it and I am not a tattletale in telling you. It is Junie the June bug who is banging himself against the window screen, Miss Mouse."

Miss Mouse turned around and looked at the window behind her desk. Then she saw the big June bug who was zooming through the air and landing with a bing and a bang against the wire screen.

"Oh, Junie, don't do that, please!" exclaimed Miss Mouse. "You are disturbing the pupils who will soon start their examinations. And you are going to hurt yourself."

"Oh, no'm, Miss Mouse. It doesn't hurt me to bang against the screen," buzzed Junie as he perched on the sill outside of the open window. "But I want to come in your school. I want to ask an examination question."

"Very well, Junie, you may come in," said Miss Mouse. "Buster, will you please raise the screen and let Junie fly in." When the bug had flown in, he lighted on the desk of the Lady Mouse Tacher and, blinking his wings, he said:

"The other day I heard Bunty practicing her number-work lesson so she could pass her examination. She said five went into fifteen a lot of times. Now what I want to know is why does five have to go into fifteen? Why can't it stay outside instead of going inside?"

"Ha! Ha! Ha! laughed Miss Mouse. "That is a funny question, Junie. I can answer it for you in a little while. But now I must start the examinations for my pupils. The first examination will be in—"

Suddenly there was another noise at the window and also a noise at the schoolroom door. I will tell you about these noises in tomorrow's story if the tail of the pussycat's kite doesn't tangle around the hind legs of the puppy dog and lift him away up in the air when he is trying to dig a bone out of the garden to take to the mud turtle's birthday party.

BRIDGE QUIZ

How are your leads against no trumps? Some players seem to have the faculty of making "lucky" leads that actually involve considerable more than luck, even when the bidding hasn't been very revealing.

The opponents have reached three no trump by the one, two, three system—which doesn't tell you very much. What is your opening play from each of the following hands?

(a) ♠ K Q 6 3 ♡ Q J 9 ◇ 8 6 3 ♣ 10 4 3

(b) ♠ K 8 4 ♡ A Q 10 ◇ K 6 4 ♣ K 6 4 3

(c) ♠ J 10 8 4 ♡ Q 6 3 ◇ Q 3 ♣ J 10 8 6

(d) ♠ 4 3 ♡ K J 10 9 8 ◇ 6 4 3 ♣ K 3

(e) ♠ K Q 9 8 3 ♡ K 5 ◇ 8 4 3 ♣ Q 6 3

(f) ♠ 7 6 3 ♡ 4 3 2 ◇ J 6 4 ♣ A K 8 4

ANSWERS TO BRIDGE QUIZ

(a) The queen of hearts. Any spade may give away a trick—something you are loath to do unless you are trying to establish a really long suit.

(b) Don't take any demerits if you make the "normal" lead of the two of clubs, but give yourself a pat on the back if you selected the queen of hearts. Unless the opponents have gone batty, about the most your partner can hold is a jack. If it's the jack of hearts and your queen lead induces the opponents to grab the king, perhaps he'll be able to overtake your ten later and win one or two more heart tricks.

(c) The jack of spades. With equal suits, usually prefer to lead the major. And with jack-ten-eight-small, the jack is better than leading the low card.

(d) The king of hearts. There is little likelihood that partner will have the ace of hearts, but he just might have the blank queen.

(e) The three of spades. With two possible entries you must try to establish your long suit, and the king should not be led from anything less than king-queen-ten.

(f) The seven of spades or the four of hearts. The four is more apt to be deceptive; the seven more apt to be read as a short suit lead. Your choice may depend upon whether partner or declarer is the more likely to be misled.

FEED YOUR FEET!

The nude look in shoes means that feet and toenails must be polished and prettied up to look their best. Your foot—like your face—needs a good skin cream, applied nightly. There's a cream superbe that's extra-rich in vegetable oils—not a smitch of mineral oil. So it's extra penetrating and fast working.

Saanich People May Get Home Nursing by V.O.N.

Home nursing service through the Victorian Order of Nurses may be instituted in Saanich municipality on a three months' trial basis, Councillor Mrs. Grace Shaw indicated at council last night.

She said arrangement of financial matters is now being checked for the last three months of 1952 and a recommendation for the service would be placed before council if they are found satisfactory.

Esquimalt and Victoria city now use the service, contributing funds to the service as does the Community Chest.

Wharf Plan Favored

Facilities for pleasure craft to tie up in Gorge waters are needed, Cir. L. H. Passmore told Saanich council last night.

He suggested that facilities perhaps be similar to fishermen's wharf in Victoria harbor.

Cir. Passmore's comment came as council was advised by solicitors that power to issue foreshore leases is vested in the Crown and that the government generally approaches a municipality to find whether it has any objections to such a lease.

The municipality had inquired regarding its position in regard to a lease sought by R. A. Wood of the Gorge Boathouse. Municipal boundaries at that point extend into the waters.

The foreshore was sought partially to rid his floats of a boathouse, Mr. Wood told council in earlier representations.

Council was informed, and showed no objections, that the boathouse might be located on Blenkinsop Road acreage, placed well back of the road.

Council's only stipulation in hearing the report was that the structure would have to meet building requirements.

Medical Aid Clearance Asked

Union of B.C. Municipalities will be asked to approve a Saanich resolution calling for an amendment to the Municipal Act to permit municipalities to enter into contracts with employees to supply medical benefits.

The action was proposed by Councillor Roy H. Wootten.

Council earlier this year cut off M.S.A. benefits to employees on advice of solicitors. It later added to salaries costs of the eliminated services and made arrangements with the employees' association regarding the contract for benefits.

Municipal health and welfare committee also will prepare a brief supporting Vancouver Island municipalities' stand that social allowances continue on an 80-20 basis, the government to continue paying the larger share, rather than place them on a 50-50 basis.

Municipal Officers To Confer on Action

Saanich municipal solicitor and prosecutor have been given permission to confer on possible prosecution of Byron S. McNutt in regard to sale of milk from his dairy farm.

Council was advised by its solicitor last night that it appears up to the municipality to enforce the law in regard to the milk sales from the farm appearing unfit.

It was suggested that if prosecution is undertaken, it be done under the Criminal Code.

Solarium Junior League Raises $23,898 in Year

Mrs. Victor Fraser was elected president by acclamation of the Solarium Junior League at the annual meeting held last evening in the Monterey. The annual reports were read following a banquet and later members who were accompanied by their husbands enjoyed dancing.

J. Stuart Keate was guest speaker. His subject was "That Elusive Canadian Character."

Miss Marguerite Hinksman, retiring president, presented a cheque for $22,600 to Mr. Logan Mayhew, president of the Solarium board of directors.

Total receipts for the year were $23,898.56 and disbursements $23,445.58.

The cheque given to Mr. Mayhew is to help with the maintenance of the Solarium. The league also purchased a muscle stimulator at a cost of $200 and an X-ray screen and films at a cost of $150. A cot was purchased for $250 and candy and decorations were also supplied.

The year's activities included the annual Shower of Dimes, the B.C. Products Fair, the open house at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Logan Mayhew, sponsoring the film "The Lavender Hill Mob," the annual box social, a rummage sale, the Snowball Frolic, spring tea and fashion show, Raven doll show, and many other smaller events.

A grant of $100 was made to Avair branch in North Vancouver which was organized two years ago.

Other officers for the coming year are, vice-president, Mrs. Mary Rawnsley; treasurer, Miss Betty Morris; recording secretary, Mrs. Evelyn Forrest; corresponding secretary, Miss Pat Jones.

B.C. Fishermen Favor Strike

VANCOUVER, June 16 (CP)—A spokesman for 6,000 British Columbia fishermen said tonight 75 per cent of them favor striking June 22 to back up price demands.

Homer Stevens, business agent for the United Fishermen and Allied Workers' Union (T.L.C.) said final ballots were tabulated today in a union strike vote conducted a week ago.

The fishermen are demanding 25 cents each for sockeye salmon, 18 for cohos, 10 for pinks and 7½ for summer chums.

Final offer by canners was 25 for sockeye, 13 for cohoes, 7½ for pinks and 5½ for chums.

Mr. Stevens said a strike will be called June 22 "unless the operators make a change in their offer."

"We have had no meeting with them since the last offer," he said, "but we are prepared to negotiate any time."

Threat to Industry

Growers Claim Berries of Holland Inferior

Though seriously worried about the threat to British Columbia's strawberry industry through the import of cheap frozen berries and strawberry pulp from Holland, growers here labeled the Dutch imports "of inferior quality."

William C. Kersey, manager of the Vancouver Island Co-operative Fruit Exchange, said yesterday the Holland imports would seriously affect prices to growers here.

A department of trade and industry report yesterday said the Holland product was underselling the B.C. product by nearly half the price.

Holland, which had a bumper crop of berries this year, is offering Canadian canners cut prices for frozen berries and strawberry pulp. The pulp is preserved in sulphur dioxide, the co-op manager said.

B.C. growers are charging Holland with "unfair competition and dumping."

Charles E. S. Walls, secretary-manager of the British Columbia Federation of Agriculture has left for Ottawa to discuss the matter with federal department of agriculture officials.

He will seek the implementation of an escape clause to the Geneva agreement as a means of protecting British Columbia growers from imports of Dutch fruit pulp at "rumous prices."

Mr. Kearsey said some Dutch berries were brought into Canada three years ago and "proved to be very dark."

"The fresh berry is the best for making jam," he said. "I don't think many manufacturers prefer to use the Dutch product. Frozen berries take on added moisture and make inferior jam and the pulp in sulphur dioxide does not return to full color when cooked."

"While it is in the sulphur dioxide the product is white," he explained.

He said the United States had barred the use of berries preserved in the chemical, but it was still permitted in Canada.

The co-op manager said one protection to the grower here would be government insistence that jam made with the Dutch product be clearly marked as being made of berries from that country — either frozen or preserved.

SHOULD BE PROTECTED

"The industry here should be protected from the Holland low-price competition," he said. "The offer of cheap-price berries will drag down prices in B.C."

R. S. O'Meara, trade commissioner, said yesterday the department of trade and industry is sympathetic to the B.C. growers' case, but pointed out the department could do nothing unless there is proof of "unfair competition and dumping."

Skin Troubles
The Swiss Discovery for Eczema, Boils, Leg Ulcers, Acne, Pimples...

F "99" taken internally, by capsules or liquid is absorbed into the blood stream, and will build up an essential fatty acid deficiency. The ointment works externally by direct absorption of the effective ingredients.
The discovery, made by clinical research in many countries, established that the lack of unsaturated fatty acids in the body metabolism can be one of the main causes of skin diseases. Ten years of untiring effort by a Swiss Chemist resulted in extracting from pure vegetable oils, a concentration of highly purified biologically active essential fatty acids. These highly unsaturated fatty acids are now contained in the F "99" preparations.
For additional information about F "99" consult your druggist. In case of difficulty, write to: Diva Laboratories Limited, Saanichton, B.C.
As its name suggests, the F "99" Two-Way Treatment acts both internally and externally to combat eczema, boils, leg ulcers, infantile eczema and acne. Even in psoriasis, some good results have been reported, but it is not possible to predetermine which cases do not respond to this treatment. To many thousands of skin sufferers all over the world, F "99" Two-Way Treatment has already proved its tremendous value. F "99" is being used for skin troubles with remarkable results, even in cases where all ordinary treatments have failed.
Always consult your doctor for a correct diagnosis of your ailment.

Gyro Club Considering Park-Playground Project

Acquisition of a five-acre property in the Cadboro Bay area for development as a park-playground is being considered by the Victoria Gyro Club.

The possibility of such action was mentioned at yesterday's luncheon meeting of the service club, at which R. L. Challoner suggested that Greater Victoria playgrounds be considered as an objective of the club in its money-raising activities.

The Cadboro Bay property is part of an estate being handled by the Montreal Trust firm, Mr. Challoner stated. It has been learned, he said, that it would be sold for park use for $5,000.

Another report claimed the property might be obtained free of charge by any group committing itself to developing the land as a park-playground.

SCHEME ADOPTED

A special committee will make further investigations of the Cadboro Bay site, but in the meantime the Gyros adopted the park scheme.

First money for the purpose will come from the club's annual "hole-in-one" contest, to be held July 16 to 19, inclusive, at the Central Junior High School grounds. A pleasure craft will be the fun fair's main prize, with other major awards including a refrigerator, radio and washing machine.

And for the first time in the long history of the annual contests, rain insurance on the event has been arranged, reports club secretary William Hudson.

Guest speaker at yesterday's meeting was R. J. Bishop, head of the English department at Victoria College. He spoke on the first Queen Elizabeth.

Storm Moving Along Coast

MEXICO CITY, June 16 (AP)—The weather bureau today reported a small hurricane-type storm is moving up the Pacific Coast of Mexico. It said the storm centre was about 100 miles off the coast at Manzanillo. Small craft were warned to stay in port.

Navy Men Give Hand To Cadets

A contribution of $1,000 to the Rainbow Sea Cadet Corps of Victoria has been made by the canteen fund of the destroyer Cayuga.

[illegible] aboard the warship shortly before she left Korea for Esquimalt, after newspaper reports which told of the city's grant to the Sea Cadets being abolished in line with the council's economy program.

The money will be turned over to the cadet organization shortly by Paymaster Lieut. William Davies, on behalf of the destroyer.

At first a donation of $250 had been suggested. Lengthy discussion followed. The Cayuga men realized "those kids will be doing our job some day." Then the figure was boosted to $500. Finally $1,000 was mentioned, put to a vote and passed unanimously.

OFFICIALS PLEASED

Forrest L. Shaw, chairman of the local Navy League of Canada branch, and other officials attached to the city's Sea Cadet organization, have expressed appreciation to the destroyermen.

Said Mr. Shaw: "This is the greatest thing that could have happened for the Sea Cadets. It will provide an opportunity to build up the cadet movement here . . . and it will be an inspiration to the cadets to learn how they are regarded by men of the fighting navy."

Lieut. T. A. Dando, C.O. of the Rainbow Sea Cadets, said he was "bowled over" by the good news.

Appeal Court Restores Executors

VANCOUVER, June 16 (CP)—The Court of Appeal today set aside an order of Mr. Justice H. S. Wood of May 13 removing the executors of the Peter Conroy estate and appointing Canada Permanent Trust Company in their place.

Conroy died in Nanaimo seven years ago and left as his executors John E. Baird, Vancouver solicitor, and his daughter, Roma Evelyn Conroy, Nanaimo. G. F. Conroy's daughters by his first wife. They objected to the sale H. Long appealed from the Supreme Court order removing them from office.

The order was obtained by Mrs. Ruth Stokes, Vancouver, and Mrs. Mrs. Cressa M. Tonkins, Seattle, second wife of Conroy.

by his executors of one Brumpton Block in Nanaimo for $47,000.

Miss Conroy is a daughter of Mrs. Caroline Digby Conroy,
